Newcombe Loses in Sullivan

Primary Coming Over Senate Post

Sullivan County Republicans at their county convention held Tuesday night at Lenape Hotel, Liberty, failed to endorse Lloyd A. Newcombe, Catskill business man, and d ned Stanley Voulelis, Middletown attorney, as their choice for Republican candidate for Senate in the new 43rd State Senatorial District. The vote was Voulelis 57 and Newcombe 45. One void.

The convention also was faced with a battle for endorsement of an Assembly candidate and Jack McBride of Monticello won out over Lewis B. Scheinman by a vote of 67 to 35. Scheinman is a former Ellenville resident, now a resident of Sullivan County.

Primary With Voulelis

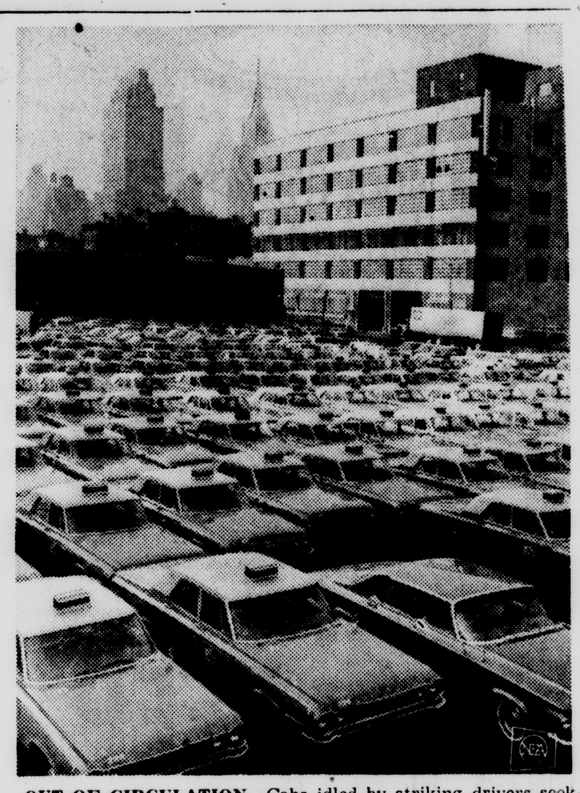

Action by the Sullivan County Convention last night indicates there will be primary battle between Newcombe and Voulelis.

There has been discord in the new 43rd Senatorial district, which includes Ulster, Greene, Sullivan and a portion of Orange County, over the holding of the Senatorial Convention prior to the holding of all the county conventions. Orange County delegates declined to vote last Wednesday at the Senatorial Convention held in Kingston on the grounds that they had been instructed to support Voulelis, following such instructions at their county convention. Other county conventions had not been held, including the Sullivan County Convention held last night and the Ulster Convention to be held July 17.

Rather than cause discord, the Orange delegates declined to vote at the Senatorial Convention and Newcombe was then endorsed by the Ulster, Greene and Sullivan County delegates. The Sullivan County delegates to the Senatorial Convention held last Wednesday were Harold W. Cole and Edward Disland Jr.

Newcombe was nominated at the Senatorial Convention last week by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, Ulster County Republican chairman, who presided at the meeting. The endorsement of Newcombe was by Oreste Vincent of Catskill and with the exception of the Orange delegates,

OUT OF CIRCULATION—Cabs idled by striking drivers seeking union recognition from fleet owners clog the lot of a New York taxi firm. On Tuesday the National Labor Relations Board ordered individual representation elections to be held in 38 of the city's 83 taxicab fleet garages. The decision was viewed as a blow to the taxi drivers organization committee, which struck Monday. No date was set by the NLRB for the garage-by-garage vote. Strikers had demanded a city-wide poll. A taxicab strike, meanwhile, also continued in Chicago. (NEA Telephoto)

Threat Is Eased by Air Troops

34 Sorties Flown Against Red Units

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) —A large government force, hit by a reinforced Viet Cong regiment, appeared to have fought its way to comparative safety tonight in a major battle 200 miles northeast of Saigon, a U.S. military spokesman reported.

Surrounded Earlier

A Vietnamese infantry unit of undisclosed size was surrounded and heavily engaged by the Viet Cong earlier in the day. The command post of a second element was reported also surrounded and in danger of being overrun.

However, the spokesman said two airborne battalions which were part of a three-unit Vietnamese task force operating near Cheo Reo in Pleiku Province had linked up with the threatened command post.

He said the infantry unit, whose size was classified, had re-established radio contact with the remainder of the troops and that, while their situation was not known precisely, the unit reported that it was all right.

No Report of Casualties

There were no reports of casualties.

A total of 34 air sorties were flown against the Viet Cong in an effort to smash their attack.

A U S Air Force light spotting plane flew over the area and was shot down in the jungle. The fate of the pilot and his observer, both Americans, was not known, the spokesman said.

The Viet Cong shot down another American plane, a Navy F8 Crusader jet, supporting government troops on a mission 50 miles west of Saigon. The spokesman said the pilot ejected and was picked up uninjured by a U.S. Army helicopter.

47 Jets Hit Vinh

Forty-seven Navy jets from the carriers Coral Sea and Oriskany joined in a raid on a North Vietnamese air base at Vinh, 165 miles south of Hanoi. A spokesman said they knocked out the runway, severing it at one end and cratering the rest with direct hits.

In the ground war, the biggest action of the day centered in the highlands midway between Saigon and Da Nang, a strategic air base guarded by U.S. Marines.

It appeared that another major battle was developing.

The government task force, made up of three units of paratroopers and infantrymen, began an operation Tuesday near Cheo Reo, the capital of Phu Bon Province. The force headed in the direction of Thuan Mong, a district capital 8 miles from Cheo Reo.

A huge Viet Cong force attacked Thuan Mong and the advancing government force this morning, the spokesman said. Shortly after the town's radio communications blacked out, indicating it probably had fallen.

Simultaneously, one of the three large government units was reported surrounded and

College Date Still Sept. '66; Davenport Is Chairman Again

Following a meeting of the trustees of the Ulster County Community College last night, Chairman Kenneth Davenport, who was reelected to that post at the meeting, stated that plans for the college complex at Stone Ridge were progressing in a satisfactory manner and the target date for opening the college was still September 1966.

Bids for engineering work at the Stone Ridge site will be opened at 11 a. m. on July 14. This will include road work, parking areas, water, sewage and other engineering details. It is expected bids for the general construction of the college complex will be opened in October or early November.

While all of the construction may not be completed at that time, Chairman Davenport feels certain that the structures necessary for opening of the college at the Stone Ridge site will be completed by next fall. With the exception possibly of the library, the buildings housing the classrooms are expected to be completed.

Plans Almost Completed

Plans for the buildings are now 90 per cent completed and thus far have the approval by the state authorities. Final approval of the completed plans is expected. It is anticipated that bids for the initial phase of the college buildings will be let in October or early November.

It was also announced at the meeting last night that Dean Paul Orvis of the State University had notified the trustees that an appraisal of $54,000 had been placed on the 82 acre site and that the state would participate in the cost to the extent of $54,000. Lands for campus use at Stone Ridge were donated to the college and it was incumbent upon the State to fix a value on the lands for the purpose of State participation. This participation of $54,000 in the cost by the state is subject to approval by the Board of Supervisors.

At the trustee's meeting Tuesday night the Board adopted a resolution recommending that the Board of Supervisors accept and approve the state's value on the property.

To Open Bids July 14

Final approval of engineering plans have been received from the state and bids will be solicited and opened on July 14 for this work. This includes such work as roads, parking areas, water, sewage and other engineering details for the site.

Chairman Kenneth Davenport said today that the trustees feel that final and complete approval by the State will be forthcoming, and he stated that except for some minor details, such approval had already been granted.

Delay on Heating

One of the delays in securing final approval has been the matter of heating the college complex. The work by the heating engineers was delayed, Davenport stated, because of a discussion among the trustees on the problem of electric or oil heating. The matter has been determined, Davenport said, with the recommendation that electric heat be the prime source.

The matter was given "thorough study" and by reason of this delay on the part of the trustees, heating plans were held up temporarily. He stated that the delay was not due to the architect's action but because of the time the trustees took in studying the matter and coming to a decision.

The Board of Supervisor's has approved the trustees recommendation that the heating be through electricity. Now plans

Named to Serve As Special Judge For City Court

Mayor John J. Schwenk today announced the appointment of Thomas F. Saccoman as special city judge for the City of Kingston.

A graduate of Kingston High School and St. John's Law School, Saccoman was admitted to practice before the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C. on Nov. 16, 1951, and admitted to practice in the District Court in the Southern District of New York on Jan. 29, 1965.

Saccoman formerly served as an assistant attorney general in the New York State Department of Law, and is a special attorney in the New York State Department of Law for the prosecution of actions and proceedings for violation of the Agriculture and Market Laws at the present time. He is also a United States commissioner for the Southern District of New York, having taken his oath of office from Federal Judge John M. Cashin of the United States Southern District Court in 1960.

A veteran of World War 2, Judge Saccoman is a former member of the Kingston City Zoning Board, and a past commander of Kingston Post 150, American Legion.

Judge Saccoman resides with

Cracker Balls Being Seized Through Nation

NEW YORK (AP) — Authorities around the nation are seizing cracker balls, tiny pellets which can explode when bitten.

The brightly colored firecrackers—about three-eighths of an inch in diameter—can be lethal when swallowed. The death of at least one child has been blamed on the pellets which look like candy.

The nearness to the Fourth of July, with its traditional use of fireworks, has accelerated the crackdowns.

Nine children throughout the country have been injured because they mistook the cracker balls for candy, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health said Tuesday.

The department warned parents and retailers to be on the alert for the cracker balls, made with an outer coating of papier-mache material. The pellets are made to explode when thrown against a hard surface.

A Massachusetts official said inspectors had confiscated 450 boxes of the pellets under the state's hazardous labeling act. "To date," the official said, "nine cases of oral and dental injury have resulted in the country because these fireworks explode when bitten."

One Fireman Quits, Other Takes Leave

Two more names have been added to the list of firemen leaving the Kingston Fire Department since early this year.

The resignation of Alfred G. Stingel, 288 Linderman Avenue as Fireman First Grade was accepted with regret" Tuesday night at a meeting of the local Board of Fire Commissioners.

At the same meeting John H. Dwyer, 70 West Chestnut Street was granted a temporary leave of absence to study at Bryant College, Providence, R. I. during the 1965-66 semester.

Stingel's permanent resignation is effective immediately. Dwyer will leave the department Oct. 9 and will return June 1, 1966.

Fifth to Resign

Stingel is the fifth fireman to resign from the department since April. Resignations of Walter F. Madjewski, 39 Second Avenue and James F. Woods, 54 Hunter Street were noted at the end of April. Madjewski had served with the department 29 years and was replaced by James M. Longendyke, 156 Lucas Avenue who was returning after a two-year stint in the army.

Woods had been a fireman since June, 1961 and resigned because of dissatisfaction with the "lack of action on the requested career plan."

Richard P. Diers, DeWitt Street and Gerald Diers, 53 Montrepose Avenue resigned June 19 to return to employment in the electrical field. Both said they were leaving the department to accept employment with "greater financial rewards plus shorter hours."

Salary Too Low

Stingel will return to his former employment as a painting contractor. He entered the organization as a provisional fireman February 8, 1961 and was appointed fireman third grade in

City Offices Will Use Summer Schedule

Mayor John J. Schwenk today announced that all City Hall Offices, with the exception of the Police Department and the Fire Department, will run on their normal summer schedule during the months of July and August.

"As in past years," the mayor stated, "these offices will be open from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., and anyone wishing to pay bills or fines before or after these hours may use the locked box in the Police Department at City Hall." The mayor also noted that the 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. schedule of hours will resume Sept. 1.

Contestants Here, 26 Vie for Title

Plans are complete to welcome to Kingston the 26 contestants for the title of Miss New York. Today is the day for registration, instruction and general rehearsal of the entire group, in preparation for the three days of competition starting Thursday.

Because of the large number of contestants they are divided into two groups, for convenience called Yellow Rose and Red Rose; each competing in three phases of the competition Thursday and Friday night.

The Yellow Rose Group includes Mary Ann Hill, Miss Broome County; Diane Elizabeth Kessler, Miss Central Adirondacks; Arlene Louise Hawkins, Miss Dutchess County; Eileen Christine Murray, Miss Hampton Bays; Margaret Ann Lang, Miss Ken-Ton; Florence Elizabeth Erickson, Miss Manhattan; Yolanta Monica Stene, Miss New Rochelle; Judith Anne Novak, Miss Oneonta; Beth Linda Offermann, Miss Saugerties; Susan L. Arrested on 12 Charges After Chase; Pays $265

A Kingston man rolled up a $265 fine in City Court today for a total of 12 traffic charges he incurred in a chase with local police early this morning.

Anthony Buzzanco Jr., 21, of 47 Summer Street was fined $100 for his third speeding violation, $50 for reckless driving and $25 for failure to comply with police orders.

He paid $90 for nine other minor violations, which included failure to note stop signs and red lights.

Local police stated that they arrested Buzzanco early this morning after he led them on a chase through city streets at high rates of speed.

The arrest was made by Officers Junious Harris and Harold Short after the car Buzzanco was driving was cut off on Broadway and Newkirk Avenue by Officers Joseph Ferraca and

Just First Scene, Pearson on Scandal

OTTAWA (AP)—Chief Justice Frederic Dorion's inquiry into the Lucien Rivard bribery scandal has resulted in the resignation of Justice Minister Guy Favreau, but Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson says that is "only the first scene of the first act."

Favreau resigned Thursday night after Quebec's chief justice criticized him for dropping an investigation into an alleged offer of a $20,000 bribe to a prosecutor would help get bail for Rivard, wanted in the United States on narcotics charges.

Pearson said he would give Favreau another Cabinet post but that the justice department would look into the possibility of criminal charges against others assailed by Dorion.

Pearson added that his government wants to "deal with the sinister and growing involvement of crime in politics."

He said that Favreau, 47, a lawyer who is considered a top contender to succeed Pearson, would also continue to lead the Liberal party in Quebec Province. He said the Cabinet had given Favreau a vote of confidence and that his integrity remained unsullied.

Favreau said Dorion's findings amounted to no more than a statement that the chief justice "would have exercised his discretion in a different fashion" had he been the justice minister.

"My resignation was tendered, not out of a feeling that I had done anything wrong, but Francis H. Kolts, vice president of The State of New York National Bank, was elected president of the Kingston Uptown Business Men's Association at the annual meeting Tuesday night at Hoppey's Restaurant.

He succeeds Adrian Kaplan, president of Kaplan Furniture Co., Inc.

Speaker at the meeting was Harry Rigby Jr., Kingston city historian, whose topic was: Uptown Kingston, its past, its present, and . . . Does it have a future? Pointing to a predicted three - fold increase in Ulster County's population in the next 15 to 20 years, Rigby called Wall Street the "street of opportunity." and said it will become the "Park Avenue of the Hudson Valley."

Other officers elected with President Kolts were: Stanley London and W. Fred Firstenburg, vice presidents; Andrew R. McDermott, re-elected secretary and treasurer and John R. Warren executive secretary.

Directors elected for three years were: Adrian Kaplan, George Manson, Joseph Brady, Everett Cooney, Gordon Dew, Herbert Gerner, Basil H. Potter and Al Heisman. Directors elected for two years were: Clifford Bunting, George Svirsky, H. Van Wyck Darrow, Stuart Randall, August H. Foerschler and George Schneider.

The new president has worked in banking for 20 years in the uptown section. During World War 2 he served three years with the U.S. Army. A native of Kingston, he resides with his

Editor, The Freeman:

I believe that some public notice should be taken of the fact that at the end of this month Mr. Gerald Shampo will be leaving our community with his family.

Although Mr. Shampo has served The Children's Home for over fifteen years, he was never, to my knowledge, nominated for "Man of the Year" or given other recognition of this kind. Perhaps it is better that way. For it is certainly difficult to measure the contribution that a man makes in caring for "other peoples' children." The demands on any person who is sensitive to children's needs are endless and great. They require a breadth of personality and character which is remarkable in any man—and sometimes even more than a man has to give.

Perhaps the most significant testimonial would be that, over these years, Mr. Shampo has understood children and young people (especially the hurt ones) in a deep and significant way—and has given in full measure to help them and their families.

Although the Shampos are leaving Kingston for better things, it is something of understatement to say that our community will be the less for their leaving.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN L. GROGAN

Jim Jacoby starts his father reminiscing again today.

Jim: "You were the partner of the late George Reith in the first contract tournament ever played and Reith and partner won. Who was Reith?"

Oswald: "George was the one old time authority who was able to learn how to play contract. George never received the publicity that Work, Whitehead and Lenz did, but he had a far greater influence on contract than all three together."

Jim: "I believe he used a complicated no-trump point count."

Oswald: "Yes. He counted six for an ace, four for a king, three for a queen, two for a jack and one for a ten and way back in that 1929 tournament he opened one no-trump with the South hand even though it included a good five-card heart suit."

Jim: "What did you respond?"

Oswald: "Three no-trump just as I would respond to a one no-trump opening today. Just to insure a top score Reith won the heart lead with his queen and led spades. West won the second spade with the ace and led his king of hearts. George took that trick and ran off five diamonds in order to discard two hearts. Then he returned to his hand with the queen of spades. By this time West had discarded down to the ten of hearts and the king-five of clubs. George threw him in with the heart and made him lead from his king of clubs."

Jim: "I can see that he was quite a player for 1929 or any other year."

Newlyweds Embarrassed

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A couple of embarrassed newlyweds came briefly into the clutches of the law here after the check with which the bridegroom paid for the marriage license bounced.

The couple had opened a joint checking account before they were married but the bridegroom failed to file a signature card with the bank. When he signed the check, it was returned.

Judge Harold C. Maurice dismissed the case and assured the couple they were properly wed.

No Room for Drop Outs Lacking HS Diplomas

More Sticking to Courses as Trades, Business Frown on the Irresponsible

By CHARLES M. McCARTHY
Freeman Staff Writer

"Drop Out — Drop Dead; same difference!"

The tall, slim youth with the tousled hair sounded more like he wanted to end the conversation rather than begin it.

"Aw, you never had it so good, Al; you told me so yourself," said his companion.

'Yeah, but that was before," said Al.

The "before" Al was speaking about was before he quit school.

And now he was wishing there was a magic formula that would automatically give him one of the most valuable gifts he could possibly ever have: a high school diploma.

There's no such thing.

Al is typical of the high school drop outs who for some reason or another can't face up to the responsibilities of school work, home work, and in some cases, any work.

Al is finding out in Kingston what hundreds of other youths who quit school yearly throughout the country are finding out: the problem is not in the number of drop outs, but in the irreparable economic damage that results from failure to finish school.

Actually, figures show that school dropouts are on the decline numerically. In fact, there have been some estimates that about 30 per cent of today's school population is dropping out as opposed to some 50 per cent a quarter century ago.

And the current per centage is expected to become smaller.

The real problem, then, appears to be in the resulting damage from dropping out.

Diplomas A Requirement

Hundreds upon hundreds of dropouts who gave up their school careers are finding out now—as Al did when it was too late—that we're living in an economic age when most prospective employers demand a high school diploma as a minimum educational requirement.

The youngsters give what they think is a 'reason for dropping out of school. As in Al's case, "I just couldn't make it, I was an absolute zero." Others say they need a job to support the family, or want a car, or want to get married, or pursue any talents they think they might have.

However, it usually boils down to basic desire to escape responsibility; the inability or unwillingness to accept and try to correst failure; classroom boredom; distaste for homework, or as Al put: "My teacher kept bugging me."

The picture in Kingston apparently reflects the national trend toward a decline in dropouts, and perhaps is even a better picture than the general situation.

"I think the message is getting across to our young people," said James E. Tobin, director of public personnel for the Kingston Consolidated School District.

Tobin estimated that about 25 per cent of those who enter the school district fail to complete school. Currently, he said about 6½ per cent of the total school population has been listed as drop outs. But in almost every case, he said, the drop out was actually capable of completing school.

The greatest incidents of drop outs occur in the 10th grade which is when most students reach the age of 16 Tobin said. Education is not compulsory in New York State once a student reaches that age.

The "reasons" for local drop outs, Tobin said, is pretty much the same as elsewhere, reflecting in many instances a modern American tragedy: the broken home. Some high school girls had to leave school to prepare for motherhood; some boys were sent to a state school. Most of these, Tobin said, come from a lower income families, or families where the parents are separated or divorced. Many of the youngsters have had at least one brush with the law, he said.

Learn Potentials Early

"The time to prevent the problem is before the pupil gets to Junior high school," Tobin told this reporter. He said that parents and school personnel should try to detect the child's potentials during ages 4 and 5. If the child is given some motivation at that stage, he said, there will be much less chance that he or she will lack motivation when the four "rough" years of high school loom ahead.

Tobin said that the Kingston Consolidated District is trying to do something to prevent the problem. He said the District has established what is called the "ABC Program" for youngsters aged 4 and 5 where only the potentially able are given a kind of specialized education.

This includes, Tobin said, supplement trips around the area to help the child understand his environment and his heritage. He said groups have taken trips to the State University College at New Paltz and other places of learning. Many of them got "a head start" this way, Tobin said, and have gone on to college. He said that some eighth graders are attending Loomis Preparatory School in Connecticut each summer for four years. "This," he said, "will practically assure them of a college education; in many cases at little or no cost to themselves."

Specialized Programs

Tobin said that some children won't finish school regardless of whether they can do the work. But the school district is aware of this. Thus it is maintaining specialized programs that were unheard of years ago in education.

The Consolidated District has a program for the mentally and physically handicapped at Gateway Industries. Youngsters are helped in planning vocational work. Students work in an auto body shop. Others are given on the job training where they learn to perform the simplest of tasks: pumping gas or wrapping packages in a supermarket.

There are also courses in comsetology, training which could lead to a career in practical nursing, or in business on all levels. There are courses in which the student can learn a highly trained skill: auto servicing, radios, electronics.

"Most kids who left school and came back, regret that they left school in the first place,"" Tobin told The Freeman. "But once they get behind the eight ball in achievement and have to repeat a grade or two," he said, "it is evident that they can't or won't adjust to their environment."

Lose 'Status Symbol'

But there is one "status symbol" they will never have if they quit; the high school diploma. Authorities say that while some of the 750,000 youngsters who drop out annually from our schools will be able to "make it on their own," without a diploma. But the cold, hard reality from the experience of employment offices, labor unions and throughout the country, is that the mere fact that a pupil drops out—forever deprived of his status symbol—he loses his individuality and becomes assimilated with a society class which is regarded as a failure.

"Al" said he "never had it so good," when he dropped out of school two years ago.

He's had six jobs. None ever lasted.

TACKLING PUPIL PROBLEMS—James E. Tobin, director of pupil personnel services for Kingston Consolidated School District, knows seriousness of high school "drop out" problem and plays an important role in helping prevent it. He estimates that about 25 per cent of youngsters who enter school will fail to complete their education and that about 6½ per cent of current school population is listed as drop outs. However, he observed, while drop outs are decreasing locally as well as nationally, damage caused by failure to obtain a high school diploma is in most cases irreparable.

Monza Sport Coupe with up to 140 hp available for more sizzle (180 hp available in Corsa models)

Corvair by Chevrolet

It's stylish, sporty and available with up to 180 frisky horsepower. See below what car experts say about its unique engineering and handling. Then see your dealer and see what a wonderful buy you can get right now!

Hot Rod
"On tight corners . . . will hold its own with anything on the road."

Sports Illustrated
"On test runs at GM's Michigan proving grounds the Corsa started and stopped with no dipping, and it cornered—even at wild speeds—with smooth intent and no sign of sway."

Car Life
"We'd feed the Corvair into the turn with increasing force on the steering wheel, applying as much power as was available, and come scorching out the other end of the curve without so much as a tailwag."

Motor Trend
"Not counting the Corvette, Corvair has the closest thing to performance handling characteristics you'll find on this side of the ocean, with no sacrifice in ride qualities."

Sports Illustrated
". . . a new American sports car that will be eminently acceptable at rallies but that can, in the American manner, double at church picnics."

Car and Driver
"We have to go on record and say that the Corvair is—in our opinion — the most important new car of the entire crop . . . and the most beautiful car to appear in this country since before World War II."

Car and Driver
". . . the superfluous has been stripped away from a classic form and the result is a clean, beautiful car. The new Corvair's styling is going to attract most people—it's an obvious selling point. Its hidden virtue, handling, will soon become apparent to—and much appreciated by—the enthusiast driver."

KINGSTON NEW YORK, JUNE 30, 1965

U.N. 20TH BIRTHDAY

There may be little cause for untempered rejoicing on this 20th anniversary of the United Nations.

But neither is there any reason for the unrelieved gloom that many feel about its prospects for surviving another 20 months, let alone 20 more years.

The U.N., it is true, is far from being the world parliament its founders envisioned. That dream, quickly dashed, was born out of the naive belief that the wartime cooperation of the big powers could continue.

The Cold War, the clamorous emergence of scores of new nations, the postwar crises that erupted all over the world, and still erupt, were totally unforeseen and unprepared for.

All of these forces placed severe strains on the U.N. structure, cracking it at its weak points and necessitating makeshift repairs to keep it going.

It keeps going, though. Fifty nations signed the Charter in San Francisco on June 26, 1945. Today there are 114 members.

For most of them, especially the smaller ones, there is simply no alternative to the U.N. Only one nation, Indonesia, has been foolish enough to abandon it.

The U.N. keps the peace, such as it is, in the Middle East and on Cyprus. It settles many international squabbles that do not make the headlines.

Its numerous agencies feed the starving, fight disease, spread knowledge. Eighty-five per cent of the staff of the U.N. is engaged in such work, which goes on despite political paralysis on the surface.

On the 20th anniversary of the founding of the League of Nations, Europe was four months into World War II. The world is nowhere near such a pass on the 20th anniversary of the United Nations.

That alone should be reason enough for at least some modest happy birthday celebrations.

THE LEAKY BERLIN WALL

The wall between East and West Berlin still stands. All along the border separating East and West Germany, the mined death strips, the barbed wire, the watchtowers and machine guns are still there.

People still cross over.

In one of the latest episodes, a 22-year-old youth made it across the Spree River in Berlin, carrying five East German bullets in his body.

A day later, at another part of the wall, another young man was shot down, bringing the estimated total of deaths from attempts to reach sanctuary in the West to 126.

During the Whitsun holidays, 20 persons succeeded in escaping across the border at various points, four of them members of the East German "People's Army."

In all, between 1949 and 1964, 2,844,430 persons have fled from the East, including 23,000 police or soldiers.

OUR NON-MILITARY AID

United States military policy in South Vietnam is the subject of unending debate. In comparison, far too little public attention has been given the non-military aid this nation is pouring into Vietnam at the rate of about $800,000 a day through the U. S. Agency for International Development (AID).

American dollars build schools and roads, furnish doctors, technial assistance and supplies for hospitals and distribute food where war has damaged crops or cut them off from hungry villagers. The Agency for International Development trains local village officials, builds electrical plants, arranges for imports of cotton and rice. Perhaps most importantly, it rebuilds villages ravaged by a war that has gone on for 20 years.

Altogether, AID spends 285 million dollars a year on non-military help to South Vietnam. When American soldiers travel thousands of miles and risk their lives to train Vietnam peasants and fight alongside them, they are helping to contain communism. They are also protecting an impressive American investment of time and money that has helped a war-weary people survive of communist threat. It is a fact that should be considered in any discussion of Vietnam today.

The Pentagon is pleased with the results of its B52 bombings in Vietnam. They were quite effective—just as swatting a fly with a hammer is.

Humphrey says he got along with De Gaulle because "It's easy to understand friends." But lately, De Gaulle's been cantankerous enough to be a relative.

It's hard to realize that the United Nations anniversary being celebrated is only the 20th. The way the UN's joints have been creaking lately, it seems a lot older than that.

WHAT OF THE YOUTH FESTIVAL IN ALGIERS?

Editorialists in college newspapers that are not Communist by any stretch of the imagination have been urging undergraduates to attend the Communist-sponsored World Youth Festival, scheduled to be held late in July in Algiers. Whether the deposition of Algerian dictator Ahmed Ben Bella means that the festival will be called off would seem to depend on the nature of the new government. It might be uncomfortable to have Communist youths from all over the world mixing with Algerian students who resent Ben Bella's overthrow. Assuming that the festival will be held, however, one must marvel at the naivete of the editorialists who advise American college students to go to Algeria to "enlarge" their comprehension of what is happening in the world.

The World Youth Festivals have, ever since the first one was held at Prague in 1947, been forums for unabashed Communist propaganda. The slogans generated by them, the topics that have been considered relevant for discussion, have always served whatever happened to be the "line" of the Communist movement at the moment. At Prague in 1947 the invited youth concentrated on the particular problems of establishing "people's democracies" in Eastern Europe. Relatively little was said about "imperialism" or "colonialism," probably because such topics might have embarrassed a Soviet Russia that was busy at the time trying to clamp its own imperial and colonial grip on Czechoslovakia and Hungary.

After the nations of Eastern Europe had been firmly cemented into the Communist bloc, the youth festivals were turned more flagrantly into platforms for the denunciation of "imperialists." But there were always modifications geared to the necessities of the day. At the Vienna and Helsinki festivals Khrushchev's young Communists talked peaceful co-existence, and actually tried to mix in free debate with Westerners who embarrassed them by questioning the motives of the Russians in suppressing the Hungarian revolution. This year, in Algiers, plans call for a denunciation of Britain, Belgium, Portugal, and the United States as the "neo-colonialists" who are keeping Africa from "unity."

"Those who attend the festival will have a splendid opportunity to become better acquainted with the experience of the Algerian revolution." So P. Reshetov, the head of the Soviet Festival Preparations Committee, wrote recently. This was before the fall of Ben Bella. In sending their delegations to Algeria the Communists of Africa, Asia, and Latin America risk exposing their youth to an atmosphere of post-coup intrigue. Whether this will be conducive to building "solidarity in the face of imperialist intrigues, neo-colonialism and racism" remains to be seen. Fidel Castro, it should be remembered, liked Ben Bella very much.

No doubt an American undergraduate could learn a good deal about the realities of modern "international relations" if he were to attend the youth festival with his eyes open and with a will to raise uncomfortable questions. But how far would anyone get at Algiers if he were to raise the point that the Portuguese in Angola and Mozambique have encouraged racial integration, while certain free African nations practice a black racism that is simply South Africa's apartheid turned inside out? How far would anyone get if he were to remind the festival that Arab slave traders were busy in Africa long after the British and American "imperialists" and colonialists" had abolished their traffic in human flesh? How far would anyone get if he were to mention the finances of youth festivals? An interesting bit disclosed by Peter Kruzhin for the Soviet Affairs Analysis Service in Munich shows that Moscow used Viennese business firms as go-betweens to distribute four million dollars to pay for the Vienna festival of 1959. The delegates themselves accounted for a mere half million. He who pays the fiddler calls the tune.

The DOCTOR SAYS

Isometrics Supplement
Other Forms of Exercise

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There can be no doubt that regular exercise is an aid to physical fitness. At the moment a type of exercise called isometric is having a great vogue. When you pick up an apple you use only a few of the fibers of the muscles involved. If you pick up a 10-pound weight you use more fibers of the same muscles. Only when you try to lift a 600-pound weight and fail have you used all the fibers of these muscles.

That maximum effort, sustained for a few seconds, is the basis of all isometric exercises.

Since these exercises will do nothing to improve the range of motion of your joints, they are of limited value, specially for persons over 40 who are beginning to feel the twinges of arthritis. For this reason isometric exercises, valuable as they are, should not be used to the exclusion of other forms of exercise even by persons who are bedfast.

One isometric exercise consists of sitting in a chair and pressing the heel of one elevated foot against the resisting top of the other. Or you may stand on a low stool and press upward with all your might against the top of the door frame.

While sitting in a chair try to lift the seat a few inches nearer the ceiling. Or clasp your arms behind your head and push your head forward against the maximum resistance of your neck muscles. This is a sample of what you can attempt without ever leaving the room.

It is estimated that such an effort for each group of muscles, sustained for six to 10 seconds is as beneficial as a more prolonged effort. But some authorities state that these exercises should be done several times a day and not just once as advocated by others.

The main advantage of isometric exercises is that they can be done anywhere without special clothes or equipment. This is a boon to the office worker who has little or no opportunity to engage in outdoor sports during the week. Furthermore they are safe.

It is a great mistake, however, to expect any results from doing these exercises in a half-hearted or haphazard manner. They should not be attempted by a person with heart disease or an organic nervous disease without the approval of his doctor.

Although some athletes use these exercise, their need for them is doubtful. For metric exercises should be used in addition to and not as a substitute for regular outdoor exercise.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — A fairly compelling logic gives weight to a flatly delivered forecast from a source here that Sargent Shriver will resign his post as Poverty Corps director in 60 or 90 days to run for governor of Maryland in 1966.

Shriver himself smiles away all such reports. But this time schedule seems to fit fairly well with a published account from other sources—to the effect that Shriver has promised to tell Democratic Sen. Joseph Tydings by Labor Day whether he will become a candidate.

One "listening post" type in the capital believes that if Shriver does yield his Poverty Corps post in September or a little later, he will stay on as Peace Corps director a few months longer.

Under revised law, Maryland's primary is far off in September, 1966, so Shriver still would have ample time to crank up an effective campaign.

The compulsions of logic enter the matter only if it is assumed he wants a political career. If he does, some sources say he must reckon with these factors:

He is 49 and cannot wait much longer to begin. His political prospects in his earlier base, Illinois, have diminished with the 1964 re-election of Democratic Gov. Otto Kerner and the absence of signs that Democratic Sen. Paul Douglas might not make another race in 1966. Maryland, on the other hand, is a most inviting prospect.

One or two seasoned Washington heads think there is still another point which may underscore these others. At the Peace Corps, Shriver bears almost a charmed life. But at the Poverty Corps, he is beginning to acquire some scars. His new post might in time become a major political handicap.

WHAT MAKES MARYLAND right now is, first of all, the fact that no incumbent governor will be standing in the way. Gov. J. Millard Tawes is ineligible for a third term.

Furthermore, the young reform Democrats who last year backed Tydings seem as eager as he for a candidate of Shriver's particular make-up and credentials. As one Maryland observer says:

"The shiny-brights need a leader to make their revolution complete."

Evidently the Tydings backers are keeping up good steam. Young volunteers help out both at his Baltimore and his capital senatorial offices. They work with something akin to campaign spirit.

As husband of Eunice Kennedy, sister of the late John Kennedy, Shriver is an energetic symbol of the Kennedy phenomenon in politics. His Peace Corps stewardship has intensified his identity with the youthful element Kennedy stirred so vigorously in U.S. politics.

Many aspects of his Poverty Corps operation add to this identity with young people, though, as noted, there are also pitfalls there. The program is arousing the hornets in some of the big cities.

PROVIDING HE MOVES AT the right time, it is felt that nearly everything in his background would serve Shriver well for a launch into politics.

This does not mean his path to the Democratic governorship nomination in Maryland would be paved with roses. The old-liners who support Tawes (feuding heavily now with Tydings) are set to back Attorney General Thomas B. Finan, whose interest in the governor's chair is unhidden.

Numerous other interested parties have been put down tentatively as live bodies for 1966. Most probably will be shunted aside early. Rep. Carlton R. Sickles, the state's congressman-at-large, might figure prominently, though a feeling exists he would drop the notion quickly if Shriver announced a try for Annapolis.

Shriver has some still-fuzzy problems about residence in Maryland. But he was born in the state and one of his ancestors got an original grant from Lord Baltimore. Rivals won't top that.

Today in World Affairs

Viewpoint on Viet—No Talks With Terrorists

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Patrick Gordon Walker, formerly British Foreign Secretary and now in informal emissary of the British Labor government, has just made a speech in this country calling on the United States to join in acceptance of Communist China by the United Nations. This is typical of the basic misunderstandings between the U. S. and its European allies which are largely responsible for the weakness of the UN — its failure to deal with the menace in Southeast Asia and particularly with the war in Viet Nam

Mr. Walker said the U. S. is confused "between recognition of a state and approval of a state." But he must be aware that this point has been threshed out again and again and that, if the question were simply a matter of recognizing an established government, the regime in Peking would long ago have been accepted.

The problem is one that a former British Foreign Secretary probably well knows, but apparently chooses to disregard. The fact is that Red China performed a flagrant act of aggression in Korea by attacking the armed forces of the UN itself and has refused to carry out the original agreement reached in 1943 calling for a "free and independent" Korea. To this day, the Soviet and Chinese Communists control North Korea, and there has been no atonement for the wanton act of aggression and war against the UN forces which caused the loss of hundreds of thousands of lives, including more than 54,000 Americans.

The UN General Assembly, in a formal resolution on Feb. 1, 1951, declared that the Red Chinese government "by giving direct aid and assistance to those who were already committing aggression in Korea and by engaging in hostilities against UN forces there, has itself engaged in agression in Korea."

Mr. Walker now says that "the proper question is not whether China is a good or agreeable state, but whether its regime is firm and established." This amounts to an encouragement of dictatorships and totalitarian regimes and a total disregard of international morality. Certainly, there can be no progress toward world peace if aggression goes unpunished and is in effect, rewarded.

The British government, of course, recognized the Red China regime before the aggression in Korea occurred 1950. Since then, no important nation has extended recognition except France, which did so for materialistic reasons early in 1964, much to the consternation of the free world.

The U.S. in the past, before extending recognition, has not been guided by whether a government is necessarily friendly to this country.

The real question today, however, is whether an aggressor should go scot-free and whether the UN shall grant recognition to a government that has never atoned for its sins of aggression and is, in fact, engaged today in a war of agression against South Viet Nam.

The issue at stake is an important one, because it can have an influence on the future peace of the world.

The history of what happened in Korea also shows a black mark on the Soviet government. It deliberately boasted in 1950 at a UN meeting that arms had been supplied by Moscow to the Red Chinese to carry on the war in Korea. It was the duty of the UN then to expel the Soviet government from the organization for this act of treason, bu nothing was done about it.

Mr. Walker was scheduled to confer with Secretary of State Rusk this week. In adressing a meeting of the American Society of Corporate Secretaries at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on Monday, he said it is desirable for the U. S. to sit down at the conference table with representatives of the Communist terrorists in South Viet Nam. He declared that the war is one in which "there can be neither victory nor defeat and which must in the end be settled by negotiations in which there is some compromise."

It is precisely this kind of talk that gives encouragement to the aggressors. Such faulty reasoning caused another British government to compromise at Munich in 1838. Hitler misconstrued this as a sign of weakness and assumed that Britain would not intervene militarily if he attacked Poland. The British might have averted the World War that broke out in 1939 if they had shown the same firmness and resoluteness as are being manifested in American foreign policy today.

Mr. Walker might reread the history of that era. The lesson is that aggressors are never deterred from further attacks by compromise settlements. Negotiations are futile with terroristic regimes whose written agreements have proved worthless.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

It was two hundred feet from the supermarket to the bus step, but the Old Lady required several minutes to traverse it. There was a cane, and a shuffling limp. The white hair was thin and silky, and the bun was under a cheap straw hat with a floppy brim. It was a hot day.

She looked at the bench. The seats were taken. There was a time when the Old Lady would have stood before it until someone stood, but that day was gone. She held her tiny package of groceries in the left hand, and probed with the cane until she was beside the aluminum lamppost. The Old Lady leaned against it in fatigue.

She should shop earlier. She knew that. The cool of the early morning is the best time, but she had puttered around the worn rug in the tiny flat, forgetting what she went into the kitchen to do, scolding herself in prayerful whispers for being an old crazy woman, washing a few things in the basin, and forgetting where she had put her hat.

Now it was hot. The thin blue dress fluttered around the skinny frame, and the old gold watch rose and fell on the flatness of her bosom. She had trouble when it was hot. She couldn't understand why she wore white gloves in such weather, but something inside said "wear them. A proper lady wears gloves."

There was a stubble of thin hairs on her chin, and they quivered with nervousness. The wrinkled upper lip held onto diamonds of perspiration. She must not faint. The Old Lady kept ordering herself not to. Strangers would misinterpret a common faint. They would send her to a hospital, and she would have trouble getting out.

She had nobody. Everyone she ever knew, or held dear, was under sod in Woodlawn. The Old Lady had triumphed over all of them—husband and children and sisters—and now the triumph was torture. It was she who had lost.

She brushed the thought from her mind. The Old Lady decided to think of other things. Once she had been pretty. At nineteen, she had taght school in a village outside Des Moines. She had seen Indians race by on ponies, whooping and hollering as though on the warpath, but they turned out to be friendly, and she learned to admire their ways.

Men of substance had admired her—some with their roguish eyes, some with flattering words, some with exquisitely wrapped gifts. Men had made her feel more feminine, and she enjoyed the pedestal of the unassailable. She would like to be a woman once more, but it was not to be. She saw herself often in the pier mirror of the bedroom, a wrinkled person of no sex with legs which were becoming bowed and a mouth which seemed to squeeze the face into something akin to an old change purse.

Just once more. But no matter how cheerfully she said good morning, even the boy at the vegetable bin only glanced at her and rolled his eyes helplessly at the ceiling. He knew she was particular about buying one firm tomato, and two pounds of potatoes. The butcher did not want to sell her a half pound of chopmeat, even when she explained that she lived alone and only had an ice box.

She would have enjoyed talking to someone. Oh, about anything. Anything at all. After all, she had been a school teacher. She was not stupid. But everyone, even the janitor at the flat, listened to her cheerful hello, nodded, and hurried off. Nobody wants to be stuck with the prattling of an old lady. She knew that too.

The Old Lady was still thinking and learning when the bus stopped. It was only six feet away, but everyone hurried aboard, and she had to wait. The old gold watch lifted and fell faster on the bony chest. When her time came, she hurried, but she fumbled at the bottom step.

In a trice, the bus driver rushed out from behind his aluminum gate and grabbed her hand in his. He was a dark burly man with a broken nose and big strong arms. He got onto the step beside her, and beamed a big broad-toothed smile at the old lady. "Hello Gorgeous!" he said in an almost sexy and insinuating manner. "You're the first broad to fall for me in years."

He lifted her in his arms, to the astonishment and embarrassment of the Old Lady, and carried her into the bus, bundle and cane too, and nodded curtly to a young man sitting in the first seat. The young man got up and went to the rear.

The Old Lady sat. She was so overcome that she kept snapping and unsnapping her pocketbook, and looking down at her lap. The bus driver said: "Just tell me where you want to go, Beautiful, and I'll take you even if it's California.

She sat, trying to breathe and feeling stifled. The first thought that came into her mind was that she should go and have her hair done. It was long overdue. Also the fingernails were cracked and needed attention. A smidge of face powder wouldn't hurt either.

She sighed to herself. The driver released the brakes. The bus sighed too. It was a lovely day. . . .

Da Nang Report by Boyle

Bird Dogging Is New Game Of Special Pilots in Viet

By HAL BOYLE

DA NANG, Viet Nam (AP) — Once they screamed through the skies at speeds of better than 1,000 miles an hour.

Now they wheel and circle over the enemy in small, vulnerable planes that travel less than a tenth that fast.

They are "the bird dogs," a group of ex-jet pilots who act as forward air controllers for the American and Vietnamese air forces.

"Our job is pretty much like that of a bird dog," said Lt. Col. William M. Edwards, 43, of Los Angeles, Calif., who heads the air support operations center for the 1st Corps here.

"We fly down and mark the enemy targets, and then call in our fighters on them."

It is dangerous but exhilarating work. Their vehicle is a small, unarmored L19 observation plane that cruises at 90 miles an hour and probably could be brought down by a well-flung rock.

Function Is Crucial

The combat function is crucial. Each plane carries an American pilot and a Vietnamese observer. They serve as the vital link between ground observers and the attack planes.

The "bird dogs" are supposed to stay above 1,000 feet for safety's sake, but for the sake of accuracy they often come down to tree-top level.

"Our biggest problem is to tell the friendlies from the unfriendlies," said Edwards, a chunky, red-haired former F100 pilot who has four sons.

"That's the reason we need to have a Vietnamese observer along."

Each "bird dog" plane carries four white phosphorus markers and seven white phosphorus grenades to pinpoint the target. They feel they've had a bad day if they miss it by more than 100 feet. Uusually they hit on the nose. In the recent bloody battle of Quang Ngai south of here, they helped direct some 700 aerial sorties around the clock over a seven-day period.

Some of the "bird dogs" flew up to 19 missions during that week. They were so weary that they slept under the wings of their planes.

The 14 pilots range in age from 24 to 45. The oldest Lt. Col. Ellis E. Bruch of Cherryvale, Kan., formerly flew B57 jet bombers. He has two children. He has flown 230 missions since the first of the year.

"As jet flyers, most of us were a little apprehensive about the slow speed of our bird dog planes," said Edwards. "But everything has worked out fine."

Minimize Peril

Edwards minimized the peril involved although the Viet Cong hate these little snooper aircraft and try at every opportunity to shoot them down.

"It's really not so bad except when low ceilings force us to come down lower than we'd like to," he said. "Then they open up on us with rifles and 30-caliber machine guns. One of our planes came back with 14 holes in it. The other day one of our planes disappeared. We don't know whether they were shot down or not. They just disappeared in thick jungle.

"We've had four men wounded."

Asked the number of his planes that weren't hit, Edwards thought a moment then replied:

"I know of only one for sure. It's a new plane. We just got it in today."

Appeals for Beards

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — City fathers have been challenged to grow beards.

Abe Koblentz, chairman of Chattanooga's sesquicentennial celebration, told the city commissioners Tuesday, "I want you to be courageous. I want you to be bold. Grow a beard. You are not going to lose votes. We are going to have 20,000 growing beards."

Vice Mayor Dean Petersen so far is the only commissioner showing support of the idea. He is cultivating a mustache.

Stock Market Has Two Remarkable Sessions in Week

NEW YORK (AP) — After a week of sluggish activity and downward skid, the stock market has produced two remarkable sessions.

Tuesday, it zoomed up in the morning, fell down at midday and then came roaring back for the biggest advance of the year.

Monday, it suffered the worst loss since Nov. 22, 1963, the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

Brokers generally were at a loss to explain the activity.

Volume Monday was a vigorous 7.66 million during the sell-off.

Tuesday, volume on the New York Stock Exchange rose to 10.49 million shares, sixth highest in the history of the exchange.

One broker likened the situation to "a case of the measles that has to run its course."

Most of the closing gain was concentrated in the blue chip stocks, representing the nation's largest corporations. But not a single stock set a new high price level for the year, while 452 stocks hit new new lows for 1965.

The exchange's ticker tape lagged as much as six minutes behind floor transactions during the morning buying rush.

Po'keepsie Corps Wins First Place In Buchanan Fete

At the 25th anniversary celebration parade of the Buchanan Fire Department Saturday, the Pacers Drum and Bugle Corps of Poughkeepsie were hosts for the Lake Mohegan Fire Company of that city.

Competing with units representing the Mid-Hudson Valley, Southern New York State, and local area talent, the Pacers took first place award for the best musical unit in the line of march. Twenty-two musical units participated in the parade, and Kingston was represented by the colorful and talented Troop 12 Indians.

On July 5, the Pacers will make an appearance in the Saugerties Independence Day parade followed by an exhibition. On July 10, the corps will appear in the Dutchess County Firemen's Convention parade in Wappingers Falls.

Director of the Pacers is James Strubel of Kingston.

Highway Deaths Up

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Highway accidents claimed a total of 230 lives in New York State in May — an increase of 8.5 per cent over the corresponding period a year ago, the State Motor Vehicles Department said today.

The statewide total for May rose from last year's toll of 212.

The total of deaths for the first five months of this year was 1,003 compared with 962 for the January-May period last year, the department reported.

Red Cross Reports Disaster Relief to Reach $1 Million

According to information received today by the Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, Red Cross Vice President Robert Shea, in a Denver, Colo., press conference on June 24 told Colorado Gov. John Love that it is estimated Red Cross will spend $800,000 to $1 million on disaster relief in the state. Shea's comments were made after a two-day tour of Colorado's flood and tornado ravaged eastern slope.

Shea said Red Cross will not conduct a fund raising campaign despite a series of disasters in the midwest and southeast causing expenditure of $4 million more than the $8 million 1964-65 Red Cross disaster budget. She said Coloradans have been generous in helping other states even though Colorado doesn't suffer frequent disasters. He commented help given here is just returning a favor. However, those wishing to make direct contributoins may send them to local Red Cross chapters even though no campaign is planned.

Cleanup Continues

As the gigantic cleanup continues in eastern Colorado, Red Cross has spent more than $65,000, $40,000, in Denver.

Red Cross National Headquarters today confirmed delivery of 786 units of gamma globulin to Colorado's Department of Public Health. The department made a special request for the blood derivative, widely used to lessen the effects of measles in children. Miss Lorraine Meyer, Red Cross disaster nursing director, said some cases of measles have appeared in disaster areas, particularly Pueblo and Prowers Counties. She emphasized the cases are not of epidemic proportions, and the derivative was provided as a precaution, to be used in treating measles and other illnesses.

In Kansas, dike workers at Great Bend won against the Arkansas River as the stream began to drop after flooding only a few houses. Sandbaggers have been removed from the dikes.

Sixtry persons remained in shelters on June 24 as a precaution, while trucks from Great Bend ran a Red Cross food relay to Ellinwood where 80 to 100 were sheltered. Approximately 800 persons are in shelters at Nickerson with Red Cross at Wichita and Hutchinson readying housing for use if needed.

Flood Hits Again

Larned, Kansas, scene of recent flooding, again suffered as minor floods swelled the Pawnee River. Red Cross workers are now assisting victims there. Three hundred persons in Dodge City, Syracuse, Garden City and Kinsley area remain in shelters.

Latest survey figures from Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico show 231 homes destroyed, 998 homes with major damage, 4,628 homes with minor damage, 6,245 families suffered loss, and 6,500 victims and workers were given mass care. Shelters in Eastern Colorado are gradually closing as families are relocating. However, in Lamar, Holly and Granada some 500 are reported housed in Red Cross shelters.

A Sterling Red Cross worker reports a snake problem is plaguing citizens there as cleanup begins. Snakes in Granada caused problems earlier in the week and 100 snake bite kits were rushed by highway patrol relay to Red Cross Headquarters in Lamar. These kits were distributed as families began returning to their homes for cleanup.

The Lamark Lions Club teamed up with Red Cross to provide 200 brooms, pails, and other cleaning supplies. Red Cross sent 75 diapers to Holly in answer to an urgent request from that town.

Helicopters Used

Kansas Red Cross disaster workers, Tom Irving, reports modern Paul Reveres, riding helicopters instead of horses, used a noisy but effective way of alerting farm families and small town residents along the Arkansas River to "take to the hills" ahead of a five-foot wall of water which raced through the Larned area on June 21. Pilots hovered just above the rooftops, with rotors fluttering the shingles, and suggested by portable public address systems that "it's time to be on the way." "They just don't seem to realize how fast this water is moving," Irving said. "One of my workers measured a rise of seven feet in just under an hour."

Tales of generosity funnel into the state headquarters at Denver from registration points outside the city. At the height of the storm in the Colorado Springs area two roofing company employes, their work halted by flooding, reported to Red Cross to volunteer. The two, Charles Colley of Nevada, Missouri, and Allen Beeman of Colorado Springs, rushed to tiny Larkspur which was stunned by the flooding. The pair rallied the town and spent days hauling food supplies to its 150 residents and to surrounding ranches.

The Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross is a member of the Ulster County Community Chest.

U. S. Navy Offers Travel, Training

Do you enjoy the fredoms you now have. Would you consider an opportunity to insure those Freedoms and at the same time receive training in a technical skill that will benefit you throughout your life? The U. S. Navy has the best technical training available to young men today. Along with the training is the opportunity to travel, the chance to see other countries, and people.

No other organization has the range and variety of travel available in the Navy. There are many opportunities to receive a college education paid for by the Navy, if you can qualify. It is possible to obtain college credits through correspondence courses from the United States Armed Forces Institute, which is available to all the armed forces.

It is possible for non-high school graduates to get their equivalency diploma while in the Navy. Contrary to information released from other sources the Navy is not taking rejects from other branches of the armed forces. The mental and physical requirements for enlistment in the Navy are the same as for the other services.

The technical training received in the Navy is second to none. The Navy has the best trained, and qualified people to be found as instructors in it's technical schools.

As well as learning a skill a young man learns and develops responsibility. The Navy has over 60 rating specialties that cover 500 related civilian jobs. Senate Reduces Duty-Free Items By $67 Amount

WASHINGTON (AP)—American tourists in far away places with a yen to bring home such items as tablecloths from Dublin or glassware from Venice would have a reduced duty-free allowance under a bill passed by the Senate.

By a 61-31 vote Tuesday, it cut the duty-free allowance from the present $100 wholesale value to $100 retail value. The $100 wholesale value has been estimated as the equivalent of $167 retail value, so the reduction amounts to $67.

Like the House, the Senate didn't go as far as President Johnson wanted. In an effort to stem the flow of dollars abroad, wanted a duty-free limit of $50 retail.

The Treasury estimated the administration proposal would mean a balance of payments position improvement of about $100 million annually. It pegged the $100 retail limit savings at about $55 million.

Although House and Senate agree on a duty-free allowance figure, they differ on three other sections of the measure, thus sending it to a hurry-up conference.

Existing law expires at midnight tonight, and any new law must be signed by Johnson by then or an older law will go back into effect. That one allowed a $500 wholesale exemption.

Italy Drops 500-Lire

ROME (AP)—The 500-lire bill—worth 85 cents—went out of circulation today as part of a government effort to modernize Italy's currency.

Cape Strike Over

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Printing and reproduction workers who staged a construction-strangling, six-day wildcat strike returned to their jobs today after agreeing to submit their dispute to arbitration.

Locals 780 and 666 of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employes (AFL-CIO) voted unanimously Tuesday night to end picketing.

The strike over wages was against McGregor and Werner Inc., which provides printing and reproduction services at the space center.

Thinks HS Girls Doing as Well as Bracero Workers

GOODLAND, Kan. (AP) — Jone Isernhagen, 15, paused to dry her face in the hot sun. She had hoed a quarter-mile of sugar beets.

"This work is O.K.," she said. "When it gets too hot we knock off work and return in the afternoon when it's cooler. The pay is good and the work isn't too hard."

Jone is one of several girls of high school and college age hired as field hands by beet grower Leo Hatcher. There is a shortage of braceros, field workers from Mexico this season, but Hatcher says:

"I'm well pleased. They're (the girls) doing as well as the braceros did; possibly they're a little more careful. They're willing to work and they're no trouble. I like them."

The girls are paid $18 an acre, the same scale as the braceros. They thin out the beets and weed an average of seven hours a day and earn from $8 to $11.

Report Is Flayed By Rights Group

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) —The claim of a special committee of the Alabama Legislature that three civil rights groups are promoting the Communist cause has drawn immediate answering fire from the groups' leaders.

A report by the Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace was released Tuesday, charging that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and the Congress of Racial Equality are Communist inspired.

Reactions from leaders of those groups included, "witch-hunting", "a typical response from a typical Southern legislature," "entirely false," and "rubbish."

The report labeled Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the head of SCLC and top figure in civil rights efforts in Alabama recently, as one "actively engaged in promoting the Communist line."

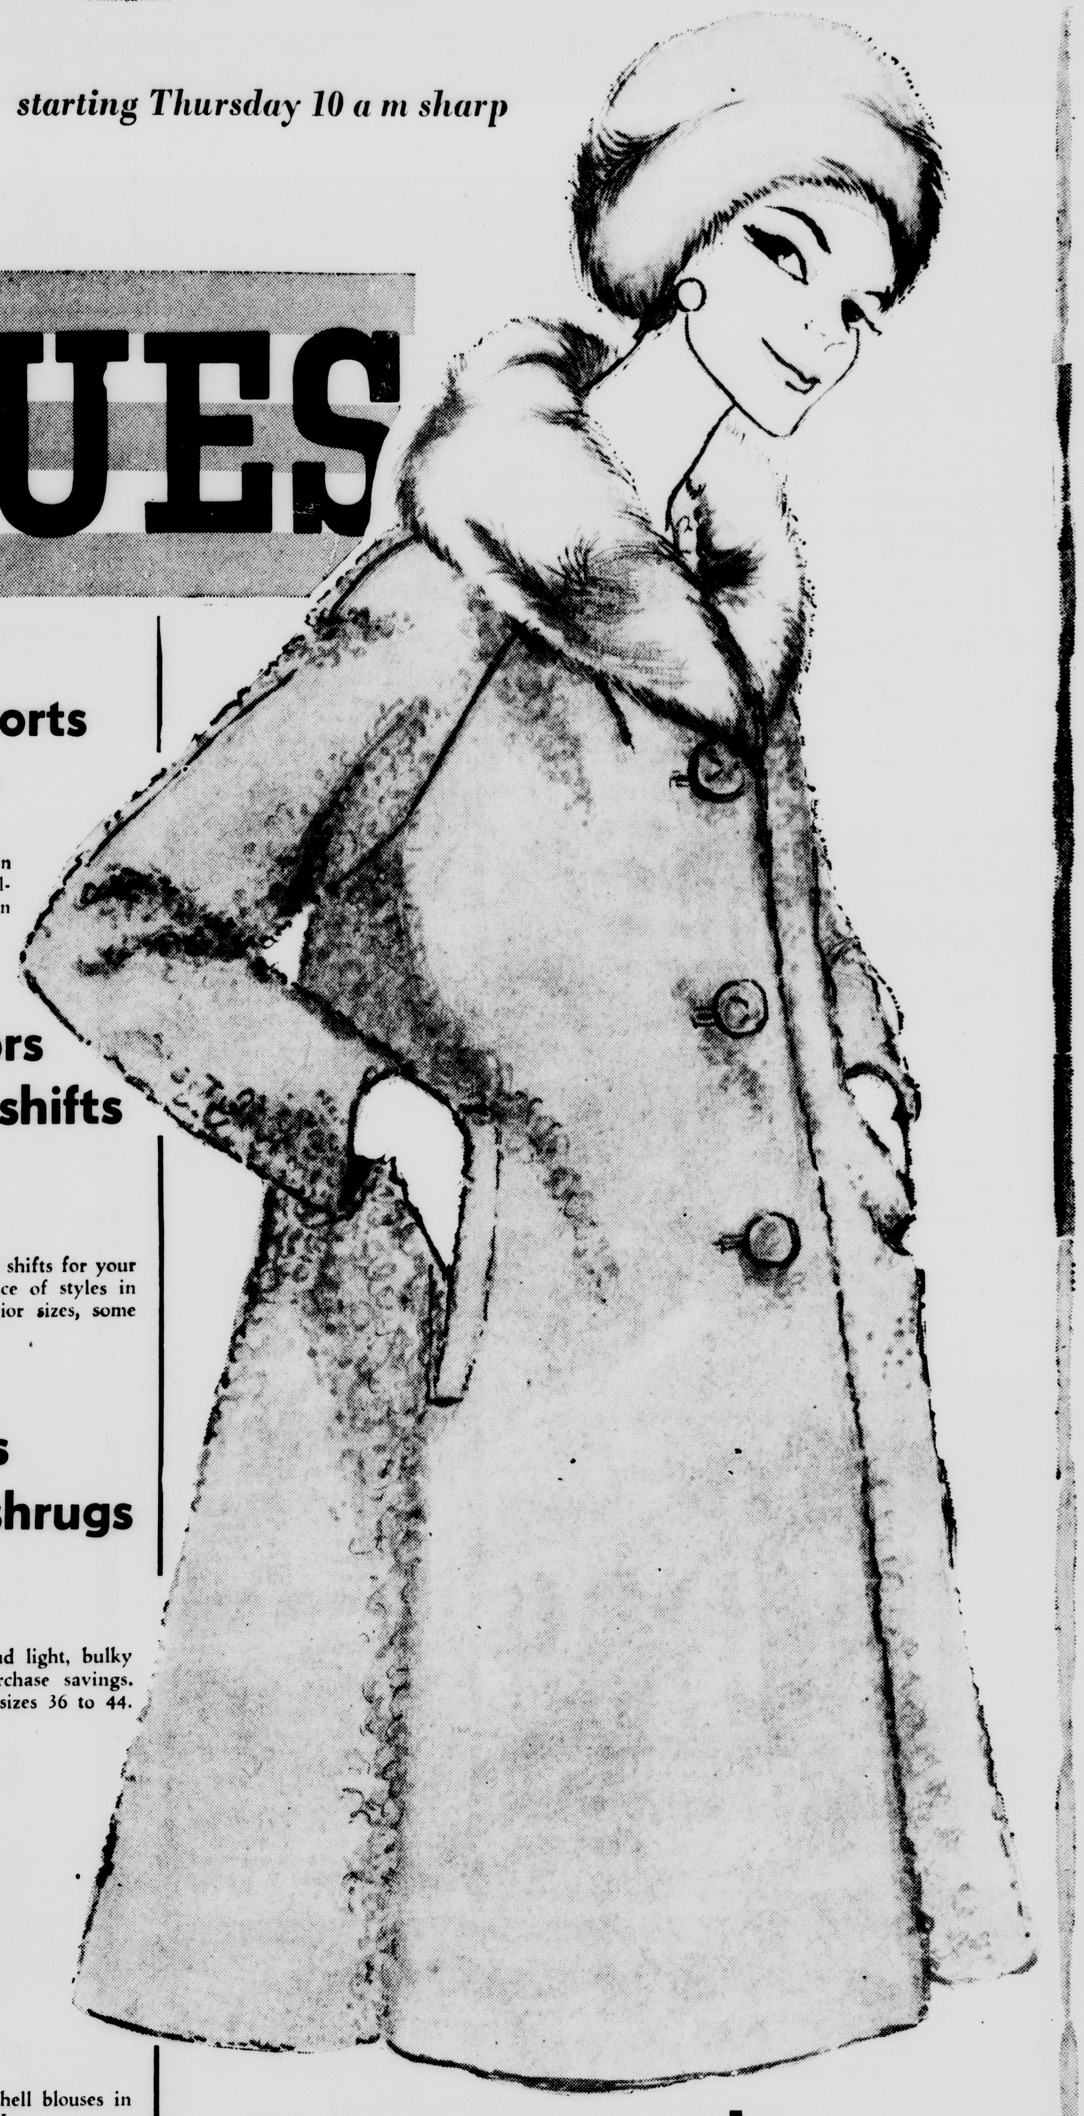

King, in turn, blasted the report as "another attempt to evade the fact that democracy does not exist in Alabama."

Business at Halfway Point

Plus and Minus Possibilities Considered for Months Ahead

EDITOR'S NOTE — In this, second of a two-part series on business at the halfway point, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, points out the strengths and weaknesses that will shape the economy the rest of this year.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market has been saying that it could have been too optimistic in bidding prices to record highs. Is business making the same mistake in pushing expansion plans higher? Are consumers in spending at record rates and in increasing their debts?

The second half of 1965 looks good largely because neither business nor consumers are giving any sign of changing their ways or their plans.

Most analysts still are saying that the stock market break is a correction of what stock traders apparently considered past excesses, rather than a forecast of a general economic downturn.

Pulling for further economic gains, at least through the next six months, are capital spending plans of business, consumer spending trends and the wherewithal to spend, and government spending plans and fiscal policies geared to the urge to keep the economy growing.

Roadblocks, current or potential, are first of all, the stock market jitters themselves, since a large portion of the public still regards the market as a barometer; international conflicts and uncertainties; monetary problems at home and abroad; labor strife in key industries and the upswing in production costs; rising prices in some basic materials; and inventory buildups that could get out of hand.

The plus and minus possibilities show up in most of the statistics.

For example corporate spending for new plant and equipment is due to increase the rest of this year and run up to 13 per cent ahead of 1964. This will give the economy a boost. But if production facilities expand beyond consumer demand, idle plants will become a drag on the economy.

Also personal incomes seem likely to go on rising. Employment is at a record high. Consumers have record savings on which to draw. But instalment debt also is at a record high. If consumer confidence is shaken by the stock market, by shooting wars, by any slowdown in factory production or drop in overtime pay, how quickly could this spread to a general economic slowdown?

The outlook still is for the second half of 1965 to be a good period for most business firms, workers, and consumers. It will lose status only when compared with the booming first half which topped expectations.

U. S. Air Force Offers Plan for Ex - Servicemen

An opportunity for ex-servicemen and women to renew their careers as members of the Aerospace Team is once again being offered by the U. S. Air Force.

Men and women who have served in any military service of the United States and were honorably discharged or released from active duty with an Air Force Specialty Code, Army or Marine Corps Military Occupational Specialty, or Navy or Coast Guard Code in one of the following career fields should contact Sergeant Robert A. Milling 597 Broadway. The military careers are: photomapping, weather, communications operations and communications - electronics systems, armament systems, maintenance and operator, training devices, motor vehicle, facilities, construction, utilities, transportation, procurement, accounting and finance and auditing, data systems, administrative, information, education and training, band, medical, aircrew protection.

Qualified men whose discharge or release papers show that they have military experience in one of the following maintenance fields may be eligible to reenlist in the pay grade they held at the time they returned to civilian life: missile electronics, wire, aircraft accessory, aircraft, missile, and munitions and weapons maintenance fields.

Sgt. Milling also said these career fields will be closed when they are filled by qualified prior service personnel.

Pay Law Upheld

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The State Court of Appeals, citing the decline in the dollar's purchasing power, has upheld a 1964 law raising the salary limit for elective county officials to $9,600.

The court said the law does not violate the state constitution, which sets a $7,200 maximum. The ruling affects county judges and clerks, circuit clerks, sheriffs and jailers. Salary scales are determined by county governing bodies within the statute limits.

Prep School Bans Cigs

ANDOVER, Mass. (AP) — The headmaster of Phillips Andover Academy has banned cigarette smoking on the preparatory school campus.

John M. Kemper said his decision was based on the report of the U.S. surgeon general linking smoking with respirtory diseases. Seniors had been permitted to smoke.

Long Drought Near Disaster In South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The effects of prolonged drought over large areas of southern Africa are fast approaching disaster proportions, according to scattered reports reaching Johannesburg.

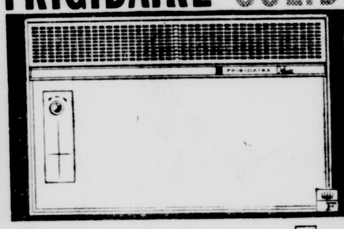

Bechuanaland, a Texas-sized country to the north of South Africa, is worst hit. Reports from the capital, Gaberones, say the government is nearing the end of its resources in its efforts to avoid a national tragedy following three to four years of severe drought — up to seven years in some parts.

It has launched a crash program to combat triple assaults by even worse drought, famine and disease expected to hit the country during July. The worst of the dry winter season, which lasts until September, is still to come.

No official figures are obtainable on how many persons have died of starvation. Government officials report that in some areas people can no longer walk.

It is feared that cattle losses will be more than 250,000 head during the next few months. Bechuanaland is almost entirely dependent on cattle ranching for its livelihood.

Charges CORE Key Arm of Pro-Red Group

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A special legislative committee charged today that the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, a leading civil rights organization, is "extensively Communist dominated."

The commission to preserve the peace also said in a written report to the Alabama Legislature that:

— The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is "an important arm of the procommunist conspiracy and a dedicated agent working toward the Sovietizing of America."

— The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is "actively engaged in promoting the Communist line" and is "substantially under control of Communists."

King, the committee report said, "is probably not a member of the Communist Party, U.S.A., nor of any identified, Communist splinter party." But, it charged, "the 10-year history of his rise to prominence through advocating social revolution is part and parcel of the Communist operation in America during that same period."

The report said the Negro civil rights leader "has amassed an amazing number of Communist 'fronts' as well as a larger list of groups which follow the Communist line even though they have not been officially declared a part of the Communist solar system of fronts."

At the same time, the committee charged that King "has been closely, even intimately, associated with persons who have been officially labeled under oath before Congressional committees as Communists."

The five-man committee was created by the legislature in the wake of racial troubles in Birmingham two years ago to investigate individuals and groups "who may be engaged in activities of an unlawful nature against the sovereignty of the state...and which may be detrimental to the peace and dignity of the state...

King and the civil rights groups also have been active in the recent racial struggle in Selma and neighboring counties.

The chairman of the investigating committee is state Rep. John Hawkins of Jefferson County.

The staff director is Edwin Strickland, a former Birmingham newsman and onetime aide to former Atty. Gen. MacDonald Gallion.

The 39-page report described the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) as "an extremely dangerous, irresponsible group which tends to promote acts of violence to gain support for their own goals."

Rip Van Winkle Couldn't Sleep with Nagging Backache

Now! You can often get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that may cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exertion or stress and strain you want relief — want it fast! Doan's Pills by their speedy pain-relieving action work promptly to ease torment of nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains.

Also, when mild bladder irritation follows unwise eating or drinking—often setting up a restless, uncomfortable feeling—Doan's Pills work in two ways for comforting relief: 1) their soothing effect on bladder irritation; 2) Doan's mild diuretic action through the kidneys tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

Enjoy a good night's sleep and the same happy relief millions have for over 60 years. For convenience ask for Doan's large size. Get Doan's Pills today!

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Movie studios could save themselves a lot of grief, not to mention money, says heavy-thinker Tony Curtis, if they would simply hire a resident psychiatrist for the actors.

Is he kidding? You can't be sure. Curtis is so gifted with the gab that when he puts forth his argument about company-paid psychiatry for performers, you're inclined to see a crazy kind of logic.

"Ninety per cent of the problems caused by actors on a picture could be cured with the help of a competent headshrinker," he said.

"Allow me to give an example. When I as making 'Some Like It Hot,' Marilyn Monroe was invariably late. Finally the Mirisches (the producers) could stand it no more and they called her agency and talked Paula Strasberg (her drama coach) and insisted that she be more punctual.

"Okay, so the next day or so she showed up at 9 a.m. but she made life so miserable for everybody on the set that we were all glad when she went back to arriving at 11.

"The point here is that Marilyn at that time was too late to be saved. But if someone had tried to reason with her earlier in her career and tried to straighten her out on why she was late, she might not have had all that trouble."

Stardom, he continued, presents constant pressures, and actors could use someone to help them over the rough spots.

He cited his own example:

"What was I? A punk kid from the Bronx who was just a few steps ahead of the cops. Then suddenly I'm here in Hollywood and people are pointing me out and asking my opinions on this and that. It was too much for me to handle.

"For a period of three or four years I was in analysis, attempting to find a way to deal with what was happening to me. That treatment helped me greatly."

Area Rotarians Donate $5,000 to Benedictine Fund

Phoenicia Rotary Club has donated $5,000 to the Benedictine Hospital Building Fund for the construction of a new emergency room in memory of the late Eugene B. Gormley, a charter member of the club and for many years operator of the local ambulance service.

The gift was made up of the pledges of the 23 members of the club. For more than a quarter of a century Eugene Gormley had given unstintingly of his time, and unfortunately his health, to provide the community with effective and efficient emergency ambulance service, frequently without recompense.

The club has also undertaken to raise an additional $2,000 from the residents of the Town of Shandaken toward the Benedictine Hospital Building Fund. Members of the club will give of their time to call upon the residents of the Town seeking pledges for the fund. Pledges need not be paid all at once, but may be spread out over three years.

In recent years, the decreasing availability of medical services in the town has resulted in very heavy use of the hospital by residents of the Town of Shandaken. In fact, the area has filled more bed space at the hospital in the last year than any other area of the county save only Kingston.

FAA Will Honor Pan-Am Pilot, Crew for Feat

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A grateful Federal Aviation Agency, which supervises civilian aviation in the United States, presents special citations today to the pilot and crew of a crippled 707 jet.

Pilot Charles H. Kimes, 44, landed the Honolulu-bound Pan American jet with 143 passengers and a crew of 10 at Travis Air Force Base, Calif., after the craft dropped an engine and part of a wing shortly after takeoff Monday from San Francisco International Airport.

FAA Administrator N.E. Halaby said he would personally present the crew with the citations for "their masterful feat of airmanship."

The ceremony is to take place at Los Angeles International Airport at 5:30 PDT.

Kimes' feat astonished even the manufacturers of the Boeing jet, who said the plane has never been tested for such an emergency.

Rochester Vols Set Anniversary Fete for July 5

Some 25 years ago the people of the Town of Rochester recognized the need for a fire department. Rallying to this need, 48 men of the town joined together and the Accord Fire Company was organized. Many people were responsible for the growth of the company, but special recognition for a job well done goes to the officers of the company. The first line officers were Chief, Howard Anderson; first assistant chief, Edward Carle; second assistant chief, De Witt Quick. First Company officers were president, Robert Kelder; vice president, Harry Ford; secretary, Ernest Davis; treasurer, D. L. Schoonmaker.

Because of the continuing growth of the town, another fine company, Rochester No. 1, more known as Tabasco, was added.

Monday, July 5, the two companies will jointly sponsor a 25th anniversary and Independence Day celebration to be held on the grounds of the Accord Firehouse.

Beginning at 2 p. m. there will be games and entertainment for children and adults. Admission is free. Awards will be given to winners of games. Ponies from Cherry Hill Ranch will provide rides for the children. A variety of refreshments will also be available, and beginning at 6 p. m. there will be dancing to the music of Charlie Cross and his band. Members and friends of the communities may attend.

Newcombe . . .

the recommendation of Newcombe was unanimous.

In the new makeup of the 43rd Senatorial District, Delaware County was dropped from the district and eight townships in Orange County were added. The Orange County townships included in the 43rd District lie in the southern section of the county adjacent to Pennsylvania and include the cities of Middletown and Port Jervis. Ulster, Sullivan and Greene Counties remain in the new 43rd Senatorial District.

Last year Lloyd A. Newcombe, contesting Senator E. Ogden Bush of Delaware Count, lost in a primary contest by a very small margin. With the reforming of the Senatorial District this year, Newcombe again sought the nomination and has indicated he will go into the primary if necessary to win the Republican designation.

It has been the custom in the past in Ulster County, and also recommended by the State Republican Committee, that a candidate for state senate be designated at a Senatorial convention prior to the holding of county unofficial conventions and that the recommendation of the Senatorial Committee delegates be presented for endorsement by the county conventions.

The split in the Sullivan County political picture did not appear in the open until after the Senatorial Convention held here a week ago. Since that time the split has been given considerable publicity by Orange County news media and over the past weekend Newcombe had been campaigning extensively in Sullivan County in his own behalf.

Following the endorsement of Newcombe by the Senatorial Committee last Wednesday, Joseph Martorana, Plattekill supervisor and a candidate for the senatorial nomination, was critical of the action taken by the delegates to the Senatorial Convention and said the action was like that of a "kangaroo court". He criticized the method of selection of the candidate for senate.

Winds Hamper Astros

KING SALMON, Alaska (AP) — Thirteen astronauts studying for a trip to the moon are hoping the weather is better there than it is in King Salmon.

Winds of 40 miles per hour, turbulence and rain Tuesday grounded Army helicopters which were to have flown the trainee spacemen to the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes.

The astronauts are in Alaska to explore a field of volcanic ash.

GOP Needs Outstanding Men And Vigorous Campaigning

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is a sort of era of good feelings between Republicans and Democrats but the last thing Republicans want is the kind of "era of good feelings" that developed under President James Monroe.

That was when this country's first big political party, the Federalists, disappeared from sight.

Nevertheless, still trying to get up off their backs after the catastrophe which hit them in the 1964 elections, the Republicans don't sound brash about the future.

Maybe their small numbers in Congress make them seem muted. They have been strangely uncritical of President Johnson, or most of them have. One of his biggest helpers is the Republican Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen.

The Federalists, the party of Alexander Hamilton and John Adams and ancestors of present-day Republicans, began to slip after Thomas Jefferson and his followers won in 1800.

At first the Jeffersonians called themselves Republicans. They began calling themselves Democrats in 1828 and have been doing that ever since, thus making the Democrats the oldest political party in the country.

The present-day Republicans didn't come into existence until 1854.

As the Republicans (Democrats) grew, the Federalists dwindled. Their opposition to the War of 1812 hurt them. So did internal dissension, an ailment which severely began afflicting present Republicans in 1964.

By the time Monroe moved into the White House in 1817, with hardly any opposition worth the name in sight, the era of good feelings began. Between 1800 and 1860 the Republicans (Democrats) lost only two elections.

Then came the turn of the new Republicans. They won the 1860 election and every election, with two exceptions, until 1912 when Democrat Woodrow Wilson broke their streak and did it again in 1916.

The Republicans fought back briefly, winning three elections in a row, starting in 1920. But in every election since 1932, except two, the Republicans have lost the presidency and controlled Congress only four years.

In the 1964 election they lost 68 House seats, 2 in the Senate, and held only 17 governorships out of 50. This was the 1964 election score in Congress: House—295 Democrats, 140 Republicans; Senate—68 Democrats, 32 Republicans.

It's hard to see how quietude will help them win in the 1966 congressional elections but here are two examples of Republicans' restrained optimism:

Before the 1964 elections Dean Burch, chairman of the Republican National Committee and close ally of GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, predicted Republicans would carry 28 or 29 states. They carried six.

Even after the election, but not long afterwards, he was predicting Republicans would win the presidency in 1968. But before the end of November 1964, a number of Republican leaders and groups wanted Burch out.

He soon seemed a changed man. On March 2, shortly before he left, he called attention to what he said was the "painful evidence of our status as a national political party."

For the past two days his successor as chairman, Ray C. Bliss, has been closeted with the national committee.

He said the committee members were "not cocky" about GOP chances and said the party can make gains only if it picks outstanding candidates and campaigns vigorously. He is aiming at big cities and the Negro vote.

Saugerties Man, Baby Hurt in Chainsaw Mishap

A Saugertis man and his 2½-year-old son were injured Tuesday at Lighthouse Drive, Saugerties when the father attempted to pull his son away from a moving chainsaw.

The infant, John Gunderud Jr. was taken to Kingston Hospital for surgery. The baby suffered a cut wrist and a slash on his body.

The father, John Gunderud Sr., 28 of Lighthouse Drive, an ad setter in The Freeman composing room, suffered cuts on three fingers. He was treated and released from the hospital after seven stitches were applied to his thumb.

Gunderud and a friend, Charles Tobiassen, also of Saugerties were cutting up a fallen tree at the Lighthouse Drive property and the baby was playing in the area, according to Mrs. Tobiassen, the former Victoria Scheffel.

Mrs. Tobiassen said the men cut the power on the saw but it was still idling when the infant ran toward it and became entangled in the whirling blade.

Gunderud was injured when he went to the rescue of the child, Mrs. Tobiassen said.

Cong Trap . . .

fighting a desperate battle.

At least six Americans were participating in the action, along with advisers to the various Vietnamese units, the spokesman said. He said their fate was not known.

Buildups Reported

Massive Viet Cong buildups have been reported during the past two weeks in mountainous Phu Bon Province. The Communists have made several big probes in the area in the past few days.

The Viet Cong shelled towns in the area June 21, 22 and 23. On June 23, the Viet Cong reportedly raided five villages, kidnaping a total of 600 men of military age, probably for use as bearers.

Little Result

Meanwhile, U.S. spokesmen announced that the first joint combat operation of the war involving Vietnamese, American and Australian forces ended today with little result.

The huge three-day operation sent more than 1,000 paratroopers of the 173rd U.S. Airborne Brigade, about 800 Vietnamese troops and about 800 Australians into the jungles of D Zone, a major Viet Cong area north of Saigon.

The force never got into a direct firefight with the Viet Cong, although there was Viet Cong sniping and mortar harassment.

No Vietnamese government losses were reported. American casualties, from mines, booby traps, sniping and several mortar barrages, were reported as one killed and 13 wounded, including four helicopter crewmen hit when the initial landings were made.

Four Aussies Wounded

Four Australians were wounded, spokesmen reported.

Vietnamese authorities claimed 255 guerrillas were killed Tuesday during an operation 40 miles southwest of Saigon, in the Mekong River delta province of Dinh Tuong. U.S. officials said they could not confirm the claim yet but believed it was fairly accurate.

U.S. spokesmen said two U.S. Army men and five Vietnamese troops were killed and 32 Vietnamese were wounded.

This brought the unofficial total of American dead from enemy action to 440 since December 1961.

Five U.S. Marines were killed and six wounded in a clash during a search sweep Tuesday in the Chu Lai area of central Viet Nam, a Marine spokesman announced. He said 14 Viet Cong were killed and 43 suspects were picked up in the day-long operation 53 miles south of Da Nang.

Reports Kosygin High on Soviet, U.S. Friendship

MOSCOW (AP) — Reginald Maudling of the British Conservative party reported today after a meeting with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin that Kosygin "made it quite clear that he attached great importance to friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States and he regretted that in the present circumstances this was becoming more difficult."

"The present Soviet regime absolutely accepted the desirability of friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States," said Maudling, Conservative party foreign affairs expert.

Maudling told newsmen after an hour's meeting with Kosygin in the Kremlin that the premier took the view the Vietnamese war was caused by "American aggression" and that a solution required an American withdrawal.

Maudling was invited here by Soviet parliamentarians.

Hopes Are Revived For Boat Survivors

EL ROSARIO, Mex. (AP) — Hopes that four members of a California family might have survived after their cabin cruiser sank were revived today when searchers reported finding footprints, a lifejacket and women's clothing on a deserted beach.

The footprints and other objects were found Tuesday by a search party 45 miles south of here near the spot where a 15-year-old girl crawled from the sea Saturday.

Denise Winter earlier, was believed to have been the only survivor in the family of five aboard the 45-foot cabin cruiser that sank off the Baja California coast last weekend.

Searchers for the Warren Winer family of Murrieta, Calif., also reported finding fresh water near the footprints, adding to chances of survival on the barren coast.

Josh White OK

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—American blues singer Josh White left a Stockholm, Sweden, hospital Tuesday after doctors gave him a clean bill of health.

White, 56, entered the hospital Monday for examination of a heart condition.

Agent Disappears, Also $124,000 for European Flights

NEW YORK (AP)—A travel agent has disappeared and several hundred teachers apparently aren't going to get plane trips to Europe for which they paid $124,000.

A Capitol Airlines official told a stunned group of teachers Tuesday night that the agent hadn't even booked three of the four planned flights.

And for the fourth, he had paid only $25,000 of the $52,331 price of the flight, the official said.

The teachers, mainly from this area, had sent in $300 each and the first flight was to leave Thursday for Paris and Rome.

Chief Asst. Dist. Atty. David Gerzoff identified the missing travel agent as Michael Friedman, operator of the Nelson Travel Agency, New Rochelle, N.Y.

He said Friedman already was involved in a check-raising case and was free in $3,500 bail awaiting a federal court hearing.

Living Costs Inch Up Again

WASHINGTON (AP)— Living costs advanced three-tenths of one per cent in May for the second straight month, the Labor Department reported today.

The rise lifted its index of consumer prices to 109.6, a new high. This was 1.7 per cent higher than a year ago.

The index reading means that consumer goods which could be bought for $10 in the 1957-59 period now cost $10.96.

The consecutive monthly increases of three-tenths of one per cent in April and May were the first such occurrence since mid-1963.

And, officials said, preliminary indications are that the index rose further in June. The June figures will not be compiled for several weeks.

An official of the Bureau of Labor Statistics said about half the May increase could be traced to higher prices for food.

Meat and fresh vegetables registered particularly sharp price rises. Unfavorably weather was a major factor in the higher cost of fresh vegetables. Rising demand and short supplies boosted prices of beef, veal, pork, and lamb.

Prices also edged higher in May for clothing and most consumer services.

Although expecting the index to show a further rise in June, a Labor Department official said he saw no evidence of strong inflationary pressure.

He declined to make a forecast beyond June, but he said food prices usually remain high until the fall harvest season.

He said the bureau found considerable evidence that merchants had cut some prices this month in anticipation of the reduction in federal excise taxes.

About 194,000 workers with labor contracts tied to the price index will receive increases in pay based on the May rise.

Run for Governor Set at Boys State

HAMILTON, N. Y. (AP)—Danny Williams and Cicero Wilson Jr. live at opposite ends of the state. They were also on opposite sides of the political fence today, campaigning to become the 28th governor of the American Legion - sponsored Boys State.

Williams, 17, of Buffalo topped four other candidates for the Federalist Party's gubernatorial nomination. Wilson, 16, of Amityville, Long Island, had only one competitor for the Nationalist nomination.

Tomorrow, the more than 1,000 youths taking part in the program of self-government on the campus of Colgate University will elect one of the youths.

In winning the nomination Tuesday, Williams defeated contenders who included John J. Maraotta, 17, of Amsterdam.

Wilson was nominated on the first ballot over Michael J. Critelli, 16, of Rochester.

Both Williams and Wilson are Negroes.

Other candidates nominated by the Federalists included.

Harold B. Sanderson Jr., 16, Seneca Falls, lieutenant governor; Glenn I. Kane, 16, Monsey, comptroller; and Jabez L. Van Cleef, 16, Westford, attorney general.

Critelli was the Nationalist nominee for lieutenant governor and Duncan W. Wood, 17, Hamburg, attorney general.

The Nationalists were to fill the remainder of their slate today.

DEATHS

ELGIN, Scotland (AP)—Adm. Sir Martin Dunbar - Nasmith, 82, one of Britain's World War I naval heroes, died Monday after three week's sickness.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet chemical physicist an delenologist, Prof. Isak I. Kitaygorodsky, 78, is dead, the newspaper Izvestia said Tuesday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Matthew John Whittall, 97, widow of a Worcester, Mass., manufacturer, and a donor and sponsor of music and poetry features of the Library of Congress collection, died Tuesday of complications from a hip fracture.

Whip cream cheese and spread it over the bottom of a baked graham cracker crust. Stud the cheese with strawberries and glaze with melted currant jelly.

Burial will be in Wiltwyck Cemetery, Kingston. Friends may call today 2-4 and 7-9 p. m.

Few Truly Accidental

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — State Police Supt. Arthur Cornelius said today few traffic accidents "are truly accidental."

"Most are the result of driver error or some violation of law," he said in a statement advising caution over the July 4th weekend.

Memoriam

In memory of my beloved husband John J. Mayone, on our Golden Wedding Day, and the 10th Anniversary of his death.
To leaves in my book of memories
I gently turn today
And the memories upon those pages
Are fresh as yesterday.
Sleep on dear heart you earned your rest
Our Lord called you when he thought best.
He saw the road was getting rough
The hills too hard to climb
He gently closed your weary eyes
And whispered rest be thine.
Sadly missed by all your loved ones.

Your loving wife

Area Lutherans Pledge $81,338 To Seminary Plan

A total of $81,338 has been accepted as goals by congregations of the Hudson District of the New York Lutheran Synod for the Philadelphia Seminary Appeal, it was revealed at a recent district cabinet meeting held at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Kingston.

The Rev. Walter Cowen, pastor of Atonement Lutheran Church, Saugerties, chairman of the district Philadelphia Seminary Appeal announced that congregations of the Synod had accepted goals totaling $1,268,000, or $18,000 over the Synod objective.

Dean Presides

The Rev. Clifford R. Rhodes of Liberty, dean of the district presided at the session.

It was announced that King of Kings Lutheran Church, a mission congregation at Vails Gate has sold its building site and was in the process of purchasing a new site.

The Rev. Charles Biegner, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Valatie, was appointed chairman of the parish education sub-committee in charge of recruitment of youth for the Christian ministry and church vocations. Meetings are planned for the fall.

It was announced that a call had been issued by St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Hasbrouck Avenue, Kingston, to the Rev. Roy D. Meyer of Lindenhurst, presently serving as assistant pastor at St. John's Church. No notice of acceptance has been received at this time.

Meetings Scheduled

For the Stewardship Committee, the Rev. Donald Walker of Rhinebeck announced that area Counselors for stewardship will meet September 7 in Kingston at a place to be announced. Also, the stewardship and every-member-canvass chairmen and church councilmen will meet Sunday, Oct. 3 from 3:30 to 8 p. m. for the presentation of materials, techniques and inspiration for the promotion of the Christian stewardship of time, talent and treasures. This meeting will also be held in Kingston at a place to be announced.

Mrs. Paul Mertzlufft, district charman of Lutheran Church Women announced the fall assembly of the group will be held at Redeemer Church, Kingston on Wednesday, Oct. 13 from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Election of officers will be held. The session will open with the service of Holy Communion.

Self-Guided Tours

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Yellow and orange signs marking five self-guided tour routes are sprouting up along U.S. 1 in Miami. Fifty thousand brochures are being readied for distribution.

The Miami-Dade County Chamber of Commerce says the project is to show visitors — and residents — that the area has industry, farm lands, military installations and schools, as well as beach.

Why We Say--

MAKER'S MARK: Fresh from the ire is the true meaning of "brand ew." "Brand" itself comes from ne Anglo-Saxon word meaning ire. New metal products used o come from the forge bearing ne maker's mark. After some se, the brand marks would begin o wear off, so the objects would o longer be "brand new."

Slide Lectures To Be Given on Kingston Houses

With evidence of increasing interest in Kingston's old stone houses, especially in the uptown area where the stockade formerly walled the village, the colored slide lecture on features of these houses will again be given this summer.

The programs will be given at the YWCA, 209 Clinton Avenue at 8 p. m. and eight showings have been scheduled beginning Monday, July 5. Three others are listed during July, on July 14, July 22 and July 30. Four will be given in August.

The slide lecture is particularly designed to help strangers and tourists in the area to enjoy some of the history and legend which these houses illustrate. It has also proved of interest to local residents. The collection was prepared by Kathryn L. Heavey and is given as part of the public affairs program of the YWCA.

It is one part of a cooperative effort of several organizations to demonstrate the value of the survivors in stone to the community today. Among those interested in the project are representatives of the DAR, the Junior League, the Old Dutch Church, the Ulster County Historical Society, the Friends of the Senate House and the Chamber of Commerce.

On July 15 a guided walking tour of the area is also planned for any interested persons. This starts at 2 p. m. from the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Dick Van Dyke Talented Artist Without Temper

By MARY TYLER MOORE
For Cynthia Lowry

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — One of the questions I'm asked most often is what is it like to work with Dick Van Dyke.

I have a feeling people don't believe what I tell them because it sounds too good to be true.

I just can't say that offstage, Dick Van Dyke is moody. Or temperamental. Or hard to get along with. I'm not sure he knows what those words mean.

The truth is that Dick doesn't lose his temper. He doesn't sulk. He doesn't throw his weight around.

He's so nice, in our hearts we know we don't deserve him.

Someone asked Dick once if he could ever be married to me in real life. And he answered very honestly — he said no. To kid him, I asked what was the matter with me. Dick said, "I'm a marshmallow type. I'm not forceful enough for you."

I had to think that over. If Dick is a marshmallow type, it's over a steel core. He's one of the strongest men I've ever known. But he's quietly strong. (I probably need a loudly strong type.)

There are quite a few loud, strong types working to put "the Dick Van Dyke Show" together. We all sit around tossing in ideas, adding bits of action to the scripts as we go along. There's a lot of joking and laughing and general fooling around.

Dick will be in the middle of it all. But he sits in the middle — he doesn't stand up and take center stage.

If we're working out a camera move that doesn't concern him, Dick may wander off and play the stage piano. You know what he usually plays? Johann Sebastian Bach.

That's because he's learning to play the harpsichord and he practices whenever he can. I imagine we're the only show in Hollywood that rehearses to Bach.

Dick does live up to his reputation as a funny, funny man. The great thing about working with him is that he does more hilarious things offstage than we ever have time for on camera.

I've said this before and I'll keep on saying it. Dick is a born artist. He's so talented at things he's never had formal training for — dancing, playing the piano, juggling.

He makes it look as though things are easy for him. And because of this, he makes things easy for all of us who work with him. Who could ask for anything more?

NEWARK, N. Y. (AP)—Katherine DeCook, 16, of Newark, drowned Tuesday while swimming in the New York State Barge Canal five miles west of this Wayne County community.

Her body was recovered 15 minutes later.

Capitol News in Brief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says cigarette smoking has jumped above the level it reached before the government report on smoking and health.

The department estimated cigarette consumption at 533 billion in the fiscal year ending today. That's 24 billion more than in the last fiscal year when consumption dipped 8 billion after the report was released.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor says the U.S. economy had a good advance in the April-June period.

Connor said new peaks were registered by such economic measures as personal income, employment, industrial production and retail sales.

Asked at a news conference Tuesday whether there was anything which did not look bright, he replied with a smile: "The stock market."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Warren G. Magnuson has introduced a bill which would provide natural sanctuarie for native birds, fish and mammals threatened with extinction.

The Washington Democrat said the Interior Department had reported the vanishing of 24 species and subspecies of American birds and 12 mammals. He said 35 more mammals and 30 to 40 species of native birds are threatened with early extermination.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agency for International Development is investigating the issuance of two $10,000 insurance policies taken on the life of an AID officer captured in February by the Communist Viet Cong.

John Kane, in the public information office of the agency, said the policies were issued on the life of AID officer Gustav C. Hertz, 46, of Leesburg, Va., who headed the public administration office in Saigon.

Kane said another AID employe applied for the policies, listing himself as beneficiary. The employe was being flown from Viet Nam to Washington for questioning.

He was quoted as saying he took out the policies to help the Hertz family in case Hertz was killed, Kane said.

Steals Ice Cream Car

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Nashville police say a man who stole a vehicle from a downtown street Tuesday night must have a passion for ice cream.

The thief's target was a motorized ice cream wagon with pink and white stripped awning and tinkling music.

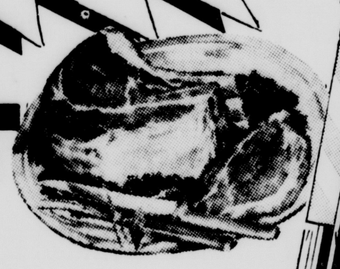

Officers report the vehicle was last seen moving slowly down one of Nashville's main streets.

Average temperature of all the waters in the world's oceans is about 39 degrees.

Communities in State Promote Jobs for Youth

By BRUCE B. DETLEFSEN

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A sign across the main street of Glens Falls read: "YES! (caps Y.E.S.) Teens Can Dot It—Youth Employment Service." And there is a telephone number if you have a job for a teen-ager.

The Glens Falls project is typical of others throughout New York State this summer.

The State Employment Service last week inaugurated the annual crash program it hopes will provide work for thousands of young people.

New York City is attacking the problem on three levels: federal, with a $2.7 million project Uplift, state and city. Their combined goal is more than 50,000 jobs.

The Glens Falls project preceded this appeal by two years. Begun by the Glens Falls PTA Council in May 1963, it strives to match job opportunities with the talents of 14 and 15-year-olds.

A placement office manned by 47 volunteers registered about 50 boys and helped them find summer jobs.

Projects in other areas include:

Utica — An Episcopal minister is lining up part-time jobs in suburban New Hartford for high school and college students who will paint, cut lawns and make repairs. The Utica Youth Bureau, aided by an $82,000 grant from the Office of Economic Opportunity, is hiring 60 young people for a survey of neighborhood needs.

Buffalo — The Buffalo School System has developed a Work-Training Program for about 600 students who need part-time work in order to remain in school.

Gloversville — A new YES program has found jobs for 10 of 55 initial applicants. A home-care program has been set up for 15 21-year-old baby sitters.

Syracuse Has Two

Syracuse — The city has two programs. One is to assign dropouts and graduates to work for public agencies in parks, roads and offices. The other would try to place 240 youths under an Office of Economic Opportunity grant now being negotiated.

Also a state-financed program, to begin July 1, is designed for college and college-bound students or high school graduates planning to undertake vocational training.

The project, for 2,000 youths, was made possible by a $657,000 appropriation in the supplemental budget passed by the Legislature last week. Sixty-four communities each will hire 30 youths for public property improvement projects.

Rent Controls Are Continued in Localities

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) —Rent-controls in communities scattered throughout Upstate New York and Long Island will get a new lease at midnight tonight when a bill continuing the restrictions goes into effect.

The measure, passed by the recently adjourned Legislature and signed last week by Gov. Rockefeller extends the controls through June 30, 1967.

Rent-controls have been dropped in many areas of the state in recent years, but the practice has been retained in at least portions of the counties of Albany, Rensselaer, Schenectady, Erie, Monroe, Oneida, Onondaga, Westchester and Nassau.

New York City maintains rent-controls under a local law.

American Indians Are Among Most Forgotten

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Indians are "the most forgotten of our minorities," a spokesman for the American Civil Liberties Union has told a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee.

Lawrence Speiser, director of the Union's Washington office, said Tuesday that Indians have had their rights as Americans ignored for too long.

Speiser urged enactment, with some modifications, of pending bills designed to safeguard the constitutional rights of the Indians. The subcommittee has proposed a package of nine bills.

Persistent Libi Back for Try at Finding the Ark

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Explorer John Libi is back to make another try at finding Noah's Ark.

The persistent Libi is making his fifth mission to find the ark which supposedly was beached on Mt. Ararat after the flood.

"This time I hope will be successful," said Libi, of San Francisco.

Libi, strong and spry despite his 69 years, wants particularly to explore three stone corrals perched on the shoulder of the 16,946-foot high peak, about 500 feet from the top. He believes these stone fences were built by the inhabitants of the ark or their descendents to mark the place the ship touched down.

The middle corral, about 60x120 feet, will be the main target of the Libi expedition. His workers will dig below the snow into debris and stone.

He hopes to find the ark remains in the form of petrified wood. Mt. Ararat was once a volcano that erupted in a mighty explosion, Libi said.

"If the explosion took place after the ark landed on the mountains," Libi said, "there's no chance in the world of finding it. But I believe the ark landed after the eruption."

Libi's 25-man expedition expects to be on the mountain in late July. Using mules, they will make their base camp at about 3,000 feet and another one at 7,000.

Libi's last attempt at getting to Ararat, located on the Turkish-Soviet border, failed when the Turkish government, still edgy over the May 1962 abortive coup d'etat, denied him permission to travel to eastern Turkey.

We still let nature make the beer
Utica Club

what does this mean to you?

it means:
you get a beer with a light, clean flavor, because we brew Utica Club from the harvest, with nature's choice whole grains...never any extracts.

it means:
you get a naturally lively beer, and it stays that way right to the bottom of the mug, because carbonation is aged in... not pumped in.

it means:
you get a light beer that still tastes like beer, because we add a little bit of rice for lightness.

it means:
you get a smoother, mellower beer, because we still take the extra time to age Utica Club naturally...for months, not just weeks.

We still let nature make the beer... because that's the way you like it

Ice covering the Arctic Ocean can be nine to 12 feet thick, but it suggests a thin layer of dust on a bucket of water. The ocean, reaching depths of 12,000 feet, unleashes gigantic forces that crush and grind the surface ice into fantastic ridges and formations.

ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP—Dean Sherman H. Masten of the Ulster County Community College, shown at left, accepts $300 check from the Kingston Rotary Club for a scholarship to the local college. Presenting the check is Rotary President Edwin B. Bolz. The funds are from the proceeds of the annual barbecue held at the Beatty Farm on Hurley Avenue. Today in History

Today is Wednesday, June 30, the 181st day of 1965. There are 184 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1952, the McCarran-Walter Act was passed over President Harry Truman's veto. It codified the immigration laws and removed the absolute ban on Asiatic and Pacific immigrants.

On this date

In 1777, the British occupied Staten Island, New York.

In 1921, former President Willard Howard Taft was appointed chief justice of the United States.

In 1942, Nazi forces advanced to within 100 miles of the Egyptian port of Alexandria.

In 1943, Winston Churchill vowed that the British forces would fight until the Japanese "submit or bite the dust."

Ten years ago—An order by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles put into effect the establishment of the International Cooperation Administration.

Five years ago—The Belgian Congo became the Republic of Congo at ceremonies in Leopoldville.

One year ago—The last of the United Nations forces left the Congo.

Criterions Corps Places Fourth in Rochester Contest

The Criterions Drum Corps, facing highly rated corps from the East and Canada, placed fourth in the Pageant of Drums at Aquinas Stadium in Rochester last Saturday night, and missed a third-place finish by only one point due to a flag violation on the exit.

Upwards of 12,000 persons watched the contest, sponsored by the Grey Knight Crusaders of Rochester.

The Hamburg (N. Y.) Kingsmen, rated fifth among corps in the East as of June 1, captured first place in the contest with a score of 75.40. The Interstatesmen finished second with a 74.80. The Troy-Pittsfield unit is rated third in the entire nation by Drum Corps Associates.

The Commanders of Hamilton, Ontario, who squeezed ahead of the Criterions by one point, turned in a score of 73.35, while the Criterions had a 72.40. Les Troubadors of Hull, Quebec, scored 60.25. The Commanders are rated second in the Canadian division.

It was the first time a corps from the Mid-Hudson Valley had competed in western New York State and not finished in last place, according to Spencer E. Myers, business manager of the Criterions. The difference in scoring all resulted of general effects, Myers said. The Criterions will make their next appearance in Hudson on July 5 in a parade scheduled at 10 a. m.

They Didn't Meet

Relaxation Camp For Khrush, Ike Now Rest Center

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

LAKE BAYKAL, Siberia (AP) — The view that Dwight D. Eisenhower never saw is a beautiful one.

Down the hill through the dark pines and silvery birches, Lake Baykal lies hazy in the deep blueness of its one-mile depth. Wild azaleas are blooming lavender on the mountains around its Siberian shores.

The azaleas were just coming into bloom five years ago as Soviet workmen put finishing touches on a bungalow overlooking Lake Baykal. They painted the outside woodwork light brown and the wooden shingle siding a darker brown and the inside in soft colors. They installed the very best bathroom fixtures.

They put a pool table in a sunny corner room. Nearby they laid out the only putting green in a country that has no golf courses.

Close by they built a similar dacha, as the Russians call any rural vacation house, and painted it light yellow and green. It was for Nikita S. Khrushchev, premier of the Soviet Union. The brown house was for the president of the United States.

Other houses, up the hill were built in similar style to house the advisers who were expected to come here with the two leaders on June 17-18, 1960. A six-foot green wooden fence isolated the grounds from the little fishing villages of unpainted log houses huddled along the lake.

Here in Siberia Eisenhower and Khrushchev were to relax and have their final talks after the American President had visited Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev in European Russia.

Khrushchev's U.S. tour in 1959 had ended with quiet talks at Camp David in the rustic surroundings of Maryland. He wanted his guest to head home, by way of Japan, with a "Spirit of Lake Baykal" to match the celebrated friendly "Spirit of Camp David."

But the spirit blew up on May 1, 1960, 60,000 feet above Sverdlovsk, 1,700 miles to the west of Lake Baykal at the other side of Siberia, and Francis Gary Powers parachuted from his crippled U2 spy plane into an angry incident which caused Khrushchev to cancel his invitation to Eisenhower.

Now the brown paint is peeling on parts of the house for Eisenhower. Women are repainting the inside of the Khrushchev house. The putting green has turned into rough.

But the other houses are full of workers on vacation from the booming Siberian industrial town of Krasnoyarsk. Soon the Khrushchev and Eisenhower houses will be, too.

The little resort has been turned into a rest center for vacationing laborers, supported by a union. But anyone can point the way when a visitor asks for "the Eisenhower dacha."

YMCA News

Summer Program Starts at YMCA

Kingston YMCA Boy's summer program got underway Monday, with a kick-off party. The boys used the equipment in the game room, heard about this summer's program events, and were given a recreation swim. Following the swim, an ice cream party was held.

The schedule for the summer calls for swimming instruction classes on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, lobby games and tournaments, and on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, softball and baseball or track and field events followed by a recreation swim. Saturday mornings will be devoted to softball and baseball followed by recreation swim. In addition special trips are planned to Baird Park, Shea Stadium, Yankee Stadium and Howe Caverns.

During the week the boys may bring their lunches. The Y will open at 9 a. m. and close at 3 p. m. All boys are invited to make a day of it. Further information may be obtained by contacting the YMCA.

Chokes Drinking Milk

WALTON, N. Y. (AP)—Four-month-old David M. Crandall choked to death Tuesday night while drinking milk from a bottle.

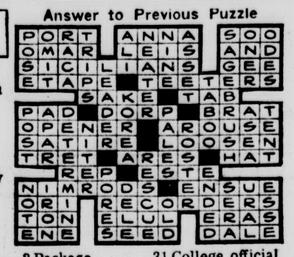

The infant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Crandall, was at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seward, when he began choking. He was dead on arrival at Delaware Valley Hospital.

Fisherman Finds Body

SENECA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) —A fisherman, apparently unaware that authorities were searching the Seneca River for Gary L. Gannsz, 17, of Savannah, hooked the youth's body while fishing Tuesday night.

Gannsz apparently drowned after he had gone swimming in the river about four miles northeast of here, State Police said.

JD Bill to Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has on his desk today a bill authorizing $16.5 million for federal assistance in the prevention, control and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

The measure, passed by voice vote in the Senate Tuesday, authorizes $6.5 million for the fiscal year starting July 1, and $10 million for the following year.

Near-Perfect

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Near-perfect performance of the June 18 maiden test flight of the Titan 3C military space rocket was disclosed in statistics released by the Air Force.

The satellite was intended to achieve an orbit ranging from 98 to 100 miles high. Actual figures were 96 to 101.

List Winners Of Royal Tire Gift Promotion

The two winners for this month of a coupon gift promotion conducted by Royal Tire Service, 15 Railroad Avenue, in cooperation with seven local automobile dealers, were announced today.

The coupons were published in Royal's advertisement in The Freeman. One winning coupon was deposited in the Franz Rambler Sales Inc., showroom at 154 Clinton Avenue, and the other at Royal Tire Service.

The winners were Hans Martinson of 6 Streamside Terrace, Woodstock, and Joseph Koskie of 155 Smith Avenue, Kingston. They were selected at the showrooms of De Micco Motors Inc., 450 East Chester Street by Michael De Micco. Each winner received a Polaroid color pack camera.

This was the second in the four-month coupon gift promotion series. The next winners will be announced at the end of July. The promotion will continue through August.

Also cooperating in the promotion are Bob Baumont Inc., J. H. Byrne Chevrolet Corp., DeWitt Cadillac-Oldsmobile Inc., Kingston Buick Co., Inc., and Parsons of Kingston Inc.

In the next month's promotion the winner will receive four Royal Master tires.

Backs Military Boost

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Republican policy committee has backed the $1-billion annual pay increase for the armed forces that was approved by the House Armed Services Committee.

Rep. John Rhodes of Arizona, chairman of the GOP policy group, acknowledged Tuesday that the bill carried twice as much money as the administration had proposed. But he said saving on military pay was not good economy.

Even Dump Salute

Maine Group Just Refuge For Refuse

KENNEBUNKPORT, Maine (AP) — The Kennebunkport Dump Association is a refuge for those interested in refuse.

Edward Mayo, a seascape artist in this coastal town and president of the association, is awed and amused by his group's efforts.

"We started this thing several years ago," said Mayo, "as a fun outfit with parties at the dump in summer and foul weather operations in winter."

A dump salute was adopted. It requires holding your nose with the left hand and waving with the right.

A National Dump Week will be held this year from July 2 through Labor Day, Mayo said.

The dump week will include a rat shoot at the town dump — "a time for us to get together;" a parade which will involve loading cars with some "high-class" garbage, such as used fur coats, old paintings and empty champagne bottles.

"We will also have a Miss Dumpy contest," said Mayo.

The group has a dump anthem and a symbol — a Mayo-rendering of a bent tin can with a black-eyed susan growing out of it.

Members are a blend of year-round residents and summer folk. A lyric from the dump anthem calls them "men of distinction who fight for extinction of stuff that is stinking every day."

EDWARD C. PAVLINIK

Clarkson Grants Full Scholarship To W. Camp Youth

Salutatorian of Saugerties High School graduating class, Edward C. Pavlinik of West Camp has been awarded a Clarkson Trustee Scholarship, it was announced recently.

The four-year scholarship depending on maintaining grades is to Clarkson College of Technology at Potsdam.

Young Pavlinik, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pavlinik of West Camp is also a National Merit Scholarship finalist and a member of the National Honor Society.

He has won prizes previously for excellence in biology and French II and for attaining the best scholastic record of the 11th grade group. Last summer he was elected as a Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp. scholar and as an altrnate delegate to American Legion Empire Boys State.

Approximately 92 Clarkson Trustee Scholarships have been awarded this year to students who will enroll as freshmen in September. The scholarships are from funds made available annually by the Board of Trustees for financial assistance to deserving applicants who show unusual promise for success in college and for service to the community and to industry.

In his community he is an Eagle Boy Scout with a Bronze Palm and at school belonged to the French, Science and Ski clubs.

Named to Dean's List

Miss Karen Brown of Grahamsville, N. Y. has been named to the Dean's List for the second semester at SUNY in Cortland. Miss Brown has completed her freshman year majoring in secondary English.

O'Connor Favors Secret Ballot to Slice Dem Field

NEW YORK (AP) — Queens Dist. Atty. Frank D. O'Connor, one of the five announced major candidates for the Democratic nomination for mayor, proposes that the five county committees of the party in the city take secret ballots in an effort to narrow the field.

O'connor, who made the proposal Tuesday in a speech at the National Democratic Club in Manhattan, said he had sent telegrams to the Democratic leaders in the five counties outlining a procedure.

With more entries in the free-for-all considered likely, some Democratic officials have said they would like to avoid a party-splitting fight in the Sept. 14 primary election. The scramble started shortly after Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner announced he would not seek a fourth term.

Meanwhile, Rep. John V. Lindsay, Republican and Liberal Party choice for mayor, and university Prof. Timothy W. Costello, his Liberal Party running mate for City Council president, made acceptance speeches Tuesday night at the second session of the Liberal Party's two-day citywide conference.

Killed by Tractor

FORESTVILLE, N. Y. (AP) —Lawrence R. Vento Jr., 18, of Forestville, was injured fatally Tuesday night when a tractor he was operating overturned on him on Campbell Road just outside this Chautauqua County community.

Drowns in Farm Pond

WESTFIELD, N. Y. (AP)— Ivan Torres, 15, of Westfield, drowned Tuesday while swimming in a farm pond on Finley Road near this Chautauqua County community.

Watchman's Death Caused by Shock

Harold Shea, 58-year-old Hudson night watchman who was found dead in 18 inches of water at the bottom of an elevator shaft at the K and B Products Corporation plant Monday, died of shock, Columbia County Coroner Newton Watts said Tuesday. A final verdict is being withheld pending further investigation.

Shea suffered a broken leg and bruises when he apparently fell 15 feet from the first floor. The combination of pain, fright and the fact that he had a heart condition caused his death, the coroner said. The body was discovered by man who came to relieve him on the job. Shea was a veteran of World War II and a former employe of the New York Central Railroad.

Bill Designed To Cut Surplus, Stabilize Income

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Agriculture Committee has approved a bill intended to discourage surplus milk production and stabilize income of dairy farmers.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Tex., propsoes to reduce surplus production in the 75 federal milk marketing order areas. It would eliminate the necessity for dairymen to maintain a maximum production in order to preserve their individual participation in markets for milk for fluid consumption.

Producers operating under a milk marketing order now receive a blend price for all milk delivered. This blend price is based upon a combination of the higher price received for milk used for fluid consumption and a lower price on milk used for manufacturing and other purposes.

Under the blend price system as deliveries of milk into the market increase with a resultant lower price, farmers are compelled to increase production in order to maintain their income.

The Poage bill would assign to each producer a fluid milk base that would permit him to receive the higher "fluid price" on a specified amount of milk and not on a percentage of his total production. Milk produced above the base would move into the lower price market for milk used for cheese, powdered milk and such.

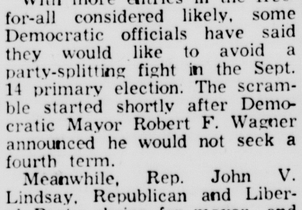

Marlboro Man Is Awarded $40,000

Paul Visconti of Marboro was awarded a verdict of $40,000 in Supreme Court Tuesday afternoon for injuries which he sustained in an accident on Rosoff Hill, Marlboro. The verdict was the largest awarded during the June term of Supreme Court and was returned by the jury which heard the case before County Judge Raymond J. Mino, acting Supreme court judge.

Visconti was represented by Michael Nardone of Highland, who also maintains offices in Kingston and Poughkeepsie. The verdict, a 10-2 vote, was returned against Provan Petroleum of Newburgh, John Kitchen driver of the Provan truck, and Rudolph Burry, driver of the third vehicle involved in the accident. Roy L. Featherstone appeared for Provan and Kitchen and Cook and Cook appeared for the defendant, Rudolph Burry of New Paltz, who operated the passenger car.

Visconti was driving a truck up the hill with a load of concrete blocks. While proceeding up the hill on his extreme right side, the Provan truck attempted to pass the Visconti vehicle on the two-lane north bound lane. The car operated by Burry, also traveling north attempted to pass the two trucks on the hill. Kitchen contended he was forced over into the Visconti truck by the Burry car.

Government Winds Up Business Year Tonight

By ADREN COOPER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government winds up another business year at midnight tonight with one important account approaching a surplus for the first time in years and another running red ink for the sixth straight year.

Preliminary figures indicate that the U.S. balance of payments will show a surplus in the April-June period. This means that the vast volume of dollars in other countries will be decreased for the first time since 1957.

The surplus was achieved through a program of persuading bankers and businessmen to curtail loans and investments abroad. Prospects are good for balancing the international payments this calendar year—a goal which has been attained in only one year out of the past 15.

The federal budget will run another deficit.

Exact figures on the two accounts won't be available for about six weeks.

The budget deficit for fiscal 1965, the year which ends tonight, is estimated at $3.8 billion. This will leave the national debt at about $317 billion compared to some $312.5 billion a year ago. A year ago the deficit was $8.2 billion.

Revenues are rising rapidly, despite a series of tax cuts which began in 1962—but so is the cost of government. Another deficit, now estimated at $4.4 billion, is scheduled in the new fiscal year.

This is likely to be pared during the next 12 months since President Johnson takes pride in reducing the deficit each year. Both Johnson and Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler have talked about bringing the budget gradually into balance — possibly in 1967, more likely in 1968.

However, Johnson has made it clear that additional tax cuts are on the planning boards and his economic advisers say priority will not be given to a balanced budget if more government spending is needed to stimulate the economy and bring unemployment down.

Stover, Fanny Farmer Drop Plans to Merge

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)— An anti-trust suit against two leading candy companies has been dropped by the Justice Department upon hearing that the firms had abandoned their plans to merge.

The government had sought an injunction to prevent the merger of Russell Stover Candies Inc. of Kansas City, Mo., and Fanny Farmer Shops Inc. of Rochester.

The two companies announced Monday night they had dropped their plans to merge after hearing of the government suit.

Judge John O. Henderson of U.S. District Court then approved a government request Tuesday to withdraw the complaint.

Burns Are Fatal

WAVERLY, N. Y. (AP)— Richard Mooney, 49, of Chenango Forks, burned critically in an explosion of his gasoline-laden tractor-trailer, died Tuesday night in Tioga General Hospital.

Mooney was the driver of a tractor-trailer which exploded Monday night after striking a utility pole on Route 17 in Chemung, between Elmira and Waverly.

Checking Rowdy Teens

Police were investigating Tuesday a report of a gang of teenagers causing a disturbance at the rear of the Sophie Finn School at 10 p. m.

Winifred Young To Teach Music At Creative Arts

Ruth Ingalls, director and owner of the Creative Arts Camp for girls on Wiley Lane, Woodstock, announces the opening of her camp for the third season.

Winifred Young, concert pianist, formerly of New York City and Montclair, N. J., has been engaged to conduct classes in music.

Miss Young has played with leading orchestras in the east and has given many solo and ensemble recitals in Town and Carnegie Halls and the Brooklyn Academy of Music. She has been a member of the faculties of Douglass College at Rutgers University and the College for Women at Denton, Tex. She coordinated ensemble for six years in the preparatory and intermediate departments of the Juilliard School.

Miss Young prepared for her pianist career with Eugene Heffley in New York City, coached with Rudolph Ganz, and was accepted on scholarship by Josef Hofman during his first year of teaching at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. She makes her winter home in Palm Beach, Fla., where she teaches piano and general musicianship.

Each Saturday evening during the summer season, Miss Ingall's camp will present a program of music, dance and drama, from 7:30 to 8:30. The public is cordially invited.

Lutheran Notes

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated this Sunday at Christ's Lutheran Church at 9:30 a. m. The earlier time of service will be observed throughout the months of July and August. A nursery will be available for pre-school children in the fellowship hall during the service and following it, a coffee hour will be held.

It has been announced that the following events have been scheduled during the summer months:

Saturday, July 10 — Luther League picnic at North Lake.

Thursday, Aug. 5—Annual fair and cafeteria.

Tuesday, Aug. 17—Annual sale of the Albany Association of the Blind.

ReformedChurchNotes

A group of Senior Christian Endeavor members of the Woodstock Reformed Church will leave Monday for the International Christian Endeavor Convention in Dallas, Tex.

Douglas Cammann and Miss Barbara Harris will serve on the council at the convention. Other Woodstock young people attending are Miss Janet Harris, Miss Rita Klementis, Robert Klementis and Mrs. Paul Hasussler and Mrs. Ray Lauterbach, leaders.

A Bible study group will hold its first session Thursday, July 8, at 8 p. m. The theme is A Study of Mark in Depth. Mrs. Artine Artinian will lead the sessions to be held through the last Thursday in August. At the first meeting a film strip, The One Story of the Bible will be shown as an introduction to the course.

Vacation Bible school will be conducted next week Tuesday through Friday 9:30 to noon for children three to 12. Closing program will be held Friday, July 9, at 7 p. m.

Fletcher Martin Will Instruct Art Students

Fletcher Martin returns to the teaching staff of the Art Students League summer school in Woodstock for the months of July and August, and will instruct in drawing, painting and composition during afternoon sessions from 1 to 4:30. One of the foremost Woodstock resident-artists of national repute, Fletcher Martin has previously held teaching appointments at 17 other art schools and colleges throughout the country, and has exhibited in many important national and international shows.

His work is represented in the collections of the Metropolitan Museum, the Museum of Art, the Whitney Museum of American Art and in many other public and private collections.

Methodist Activities

Overlook Methodist Church gave recognition to members of the graduating class of 1965 at the worship service last Sunday. William Fisher, chairman of the education commission, presented the book Through The Valley Of The Kwai, to Steven Mercer, Gwen Miller, Dennis Shultis, and Terrence Shultis. Terry Breitenstein and Christine Dean, who could not be present at the service will also receive a copy of the book.

Mrs. Kenneth Reynolds, immediate past president of Woman's Society of Christian Service, was also recognized and honored at the service. The Rev. James Cook, pastor of the church, said that, "Her leadership and faithfulness has been such that the entire church has been strengthened by the work of the society." Mrs. Reynolds, a former Sunday school teacher, has served as president for three years.

This Sunday, July 4, the church will begin its summer schedule. There will be no Sunday school and the worship service will be held at 10 a. m. This schedule will remain in effect until the Sunday following Labor Day.

Demonstrate Use Of Foam on Auto Fire

The extinguishing qualities of foam on an automobile fire were demonstrated at the Bearsville Flats Tuesday evening when the four companies comprising the Woodstock Fire Department held a demonstration.

A wrecked automobile was burned, and after the fire was well underway a representative from the Nichols Oxygen Service of Hyde Park attacked the fire with a foam extinguishing agent. The blaze was smothered with the foam, indicating that the use of foam on automibile fires was an important factor in fire fighting.

As a precautionary measure, a fire pumper and a tank truck from Woodstock Fire Company No. 1 was at the scene.

Approximately 75 firemen from the four Woodstock companies were present at the demonstration.

Schweppes Bitter Lemon crossed the ocean and conquered America back in 1961.

"Of course Schweppes has nothing against children. It's simply that we invented Bitter Lemon for grownups."

ABOVE, you see Commander Whitehead explaining a fact of life to a young Schweppesfan:

Schweppes Bitter Lemon is the first adult soft drink, as well as the most versatile new mixer since Schweppes Tonic itself. It is also an unobtrusive way to sit out a round or two.

Schweppes invented Bitter Lemon. "It was our first new drink in 100 years," says Commander Whitehead, "and we did not skimp. Schweppes uses whole fresh lemons in making Bitter Lemon. Juice, pulp, peel, everything."

Turn a bottle of Schweppes Bitter Lemon upside down before you open it. See the morsels of lemon for yourself. Whole, fresh lemons give Schweppes Bitter Lemon its tart, grown-up taste. It's the only soft drink children don't like.

If your child does like Schweppes Bitter Lemon, don't fret. Instead, rejoice. You have a precocious child.

Get Schweppes in no deposit, no return bottles. They're convenient, and they guard the flavor, too.

The barber asked,

Barber—Are you taking a vacation this year?

The man in the chair said,

Customer—Yes, in fact my wife and I are flying to Rome tomorrow for a couple of weeks.

The rest of the conversation went like this:

Barber—How are you going?

Customer—By Pan-Am.

Barber—Don't go by Pan-Am. The service is poor, the food is lousy, the stewardesses are ugly and it'll be rough all the way. Where are you staying in Rome?

Customer—At the Hilton.

Barber—Don't stay there, you won't like it. The food's no good, and the beds are hard and nobody'll pay any attention to you. You can find a better place to stay than that. What're you going to do in Rome?

Customer—We thought we'd try to get an audience with the Pope.

Barber—Take my advice — don't waste your time. You'll never get near him. There'll be ten thousand Italians milling around the square smelling like garlic. You'll wish you never went near the place.

The fellow paid his bill and walked out. Three weeks later he was back.

Barber—Did you get to Italy?

Customer—Yep.

Barber—How did you go?

Customer—We went by Pan-Am. It was a wonderful trip, smooth sailing all the way. The food was excellent, the service was great and the stewardesses were 20-20 visions. Couldn't have been better.

Barber—Where'd you stay?

Customer—At the Hilton. It's a beautiful place. The food was terrific, the beds were the best I've ever slept in and everybody was marvelous. Wonderful accommodations!

Dear Abby . . .

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Maybe you can tell us what to do. Three years ago our daughter ran away and got married. We didn't try to stop her although we wanted so much for her to get married in a church, but he didn't believe in church weddings. He promised her that if they had any children they would be baptized in her religion. Three months ago they had a baby and so far nothing has been said about baptizing it. Our friends tell us we should disown our daughter, but how can people disown their own flesh and blood? We know the husband has no intention of keeping his promise and we are just sick over it. All I do is cry, Abby. I can't disown my daughter. It isn't her fault. What should I do?

HEARTBROKEN

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: The problem is clearly your daughter's. If she cannot persuade her husband to have the baby baptized, why make her even more miserable by making an issue of it? Of course you shouldn't disown her. Wall off that episode in your daughter's young marriage and help her make the most of what is left.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: I am a secretary who has been working in the same office for many years. The messenger boy has been here almost as long as I. (He's not really a "boy"—he's a man.) He has frequently done small favors for me in addition to doing his routine office errands. He would never accept money, so I have given his children little gifts on various occasions. Now this messenger boy has invited me to spend Sunday at his home with his family. Don't get me wrong, I am not snobbish, but I hate the idea of spending one of my precious Sundays with the messenger boy and his family. I have nothing in common with his wife, and I have a hundred things I'd rather do on Sundays. On the other hand, I hate to hurt his feelings. Any suggestions on how to refuse?

STUMPED

DEAR STUMPED: Don't say that you have a previous engagement, or he will only ask you for your next "free" Sunday. Tell him in a gentle way that your Sundays belong to your family and close friends whom you aren't able to see during the week. Be kind, but final.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: A question came up recently at a gathering of women, and I would like your opinion.

A friend of ours has a niece who has a baby. Whenever anyone sends the baby a gift, the niece writes the thank-you note as though it were written by the baby. ("I just love the darling little blue sweater you gave me. It just matches my eyes," etc.) The friend thinks this is just too coy and therefore not in very good taste. What do you think?

THE FRIEND'S FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: I think the spirit and promptness of the thank-you note covers all essentials of good taste.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for the "lift" your column always gives me. I have been a widow for 40 years. My only child suffered a nervous breakdown 18 years ago, and she is in an institution, but she is allowed to come home for a visit every once in a while. She is a beautiful bright young woman, but too mentally disturbed to live at home. When I hear people say they have trouble, I say to myself, "They don't know what trouble is." You may print this if you wish. I know you don't print names. Sign me...

"FAITH AND HOPE"

DEAR FAITH AND HOPE: Thank you for your letter. It's letters like yours that remind us how lucky most of us are. God bless you and your daughter.

Cigarettes Must Carry Warning In June of 1966

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Beginning next June, each package of cigarettes sold in New York State must bear a special label with this message:

WARNING

Excessive Use is Dangerous to Health

The requirement was imposed by a bill signed Tuesday by Gov. Rockefeller, who said he did so despite the fact that Congress is considering a similar labeling law.

Rockefeller said, until the federal government acts, "the state has a responsibility to make the public aware of health measures, and this bill would serve especially as a caution to youngsters."

The measure was among a score approved by the governor as he worked his way deeper into the 1,060 bills left by the 1965 Legislature, which adjourned a week ago.

He also vetoed seven, among them a measure that would have made it a crime to wear a uniform or insignia of any existing or extinct political party or foreign nation.

The bill was aimed at the American Nazi party, whose members wear the swastika armband. The swastika was the symbol of the Nazi movement in Germany, led by Adolf Hitler.

Rockefeller said the language of the bill was vague and uncertain and could jeopardize innocent persons.

Aside from the cigarette bill, the measures that Rockefeller signed Tuesday were relatively minor.

Th cigarette law specifies that the label must be of a color that would contrast with the color of the package. The warning message must be printed in type no smaller than eight point —about the size of the type used for this newspaper story.

The bill did not attempt to define "excessive use."

Violations of the law will be a misdemeanor, subjecting offenders to maximum penalties of a year in jail and a $500 fine.

Wicks Firemen to Meet

A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Company will hold its monthly meeting Thursday at 8 p. m. at the engine house. There will be a report on the block party and preparations for participating in the annual Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association parade in Highland will be discussed. There will be other important business to come before the meeting.

Car Is Rifled

A report that someone had rifled an automobile belonging to Jesse Passante, 261 East Strand about 1 a. m. today is being investigated by local police.

Uptown Bank Now County Savings

Howard C. St. John, president of the Ulster County Savings Institution, annouced today that the name of the bank has been changed from the Ulster County Savings Institution to the Ulster County Savings Bank

Approval for the change in name was received Tuesday from the New York State Banking Department. This followed an earlier approval by the bank's Board of Trustees.

This name change is the first one to be made since the bank was incorporated in 1851. St. John said the official changeover is effective immediately.

Lynn Bertucci, Catskill, Is Installed As New Exalted Star of Constellation, 25

Formal ceremonies marking the installation of Miss Lynn Bertucci as exalted star of light and love of Alice M. Scardefield Constellation of Junior Stars, 25, took place Saturday night at Masonic Temple.

Miss Bertucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bertucci of Cairo Road Junction, Catskill, succeeds Miss Carol Haines of Kingston. The installation was witnessed by an overflow audience.

Evelyn Mackey, immediate past district deputy grand matron for Greene-Ulster District and Robert B. Greene, immediate past lecturer for Greene-Ulster District, were the installing officers.

Several current members of the Junior Stars presented a degree in honor of the retiring exalted star in the form of remembrances of her six-month reign.

Six former exalted stars were among those in attendance including Judy Calderwood, Clara Hayner, Donna Steward, Sharon Greene, Linda Van Tassel and Suzanne Warringer.

Another highlight of the public installation ceremony was the presence of four officers of the Grand Constellation, State of New York, including Lynn Bonesteel, district deputy grand exalted star; Marie Soldane, grand star of mercy; Irene Powell, grand star of service and Jeannine Snedden, grand star of records.

The Misses Donna Steward and Carol Haines were assisting sponsors during the installation. Members of Colonial Chapter, Order of DeMolay, served as escorts for the new officers.

Mrs. Robert B. Greene was at the piano and console for sections of the program while Miss Sharon Greene and Miss Cheryl Thomas offered vocal selections.

Mrs. Ralph Hayner, chairman of the board of sponsors, opened the meeting with a word of welcome. Refreshments were served in the Temple's dining room.

The next meeting of the Constellation is scheduled for Sept. 25.

MENDELSSOHN CLUB PROJECTS PLANS—Dedicated to the presentation of male choral music, the Mendelssohn Club of Kingston is busy making long-range plans for its 1965-66 concert season. Attending the planning session and reviewing its immediate past successful season were (l-r) Arnold M. Reynolds, Irving Levine, Raymond Petersen, Raymond F. Myers, Joseph F. Flowers, Brian Steeves, chairman of the Music Program Committee; and Albert Hunter, conductor. Also present at the planning session were Edward L. Sprute, president; Charles and Gus W. Talleur, music librarians; Edward J. Heaney, treasurer; Willys Ryder, associate membership and historian; E. Robert Johnson, publicity and membership; and William Wood, fellowship chairman. Steeves, who is a music teacher at the J. Watson Bailey School, this city, also serves as assistant director of the Mendelssohn group. Nelson Burhans is general chairman. Democratic Women Planning Picnic; August Date Set

At a meeting of the Ulster County Democratic Women's Club held recently, it was noted that all dues must be paid through September, 1965 in order to be eligible to vote in the upcoming club elections.

Named to a nominating committee were: Mrs. Lincoln Crosby, chairman; Mrs. James McCardle; Mrs. Mary Myers; Miss Lillian Carter and Mrs. David Reilly.

The annual picnic will be held on August 22 in Hasbrouck Park, it was announced.

Meetings of the club will not be held during the summer.

Guest speaker for the occasion was John Heitzman, who is an announced candidate for the post of Kingston Mayor. His topic was: "You Can't Win An Election Without the Women."

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in September. It will be an election meeting.

St. James Wesleyan Guild

A picnic supper, held on the parsonage lawn, preceeded the meeing of the Wesleyan Service Guild of St. James Methodist Church on Tuesday, June 22.

The following officers for the year 1965-66 were installed by the Rev. C. Pershing Hunter:

President, Miss Bertha Waterman; Vice President, Miss Evelyn Thomas; Treasurer, Mrs. Louise Wells; Secretary, Miss Matilda R. Martin; Co-ordinator, Mrs. C. P. Hunter. Chairman of Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Marge Jansen; Chairman of Spiritual Life, Mrs. Hilda Black; Chairman of Local Church Activities, Mrs. Beatrice VanKeuren; Chairman of Membership, Mrs. Rosemary Jones; Chairman of Missionary Education and Service, Mrs. Hazel Van Wagenen.

Three members, Mrs. Rosemary Jones, Miss Bertha Waterman and Miss Matilda Martin, will represent the Kingston Wesleyan Service Guild at a weekend with the New York and Northern New Jersey Conferences, to be held at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, from July 9-11.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY HINES JR., of Lucas Avenue extension, observed their 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 26 at a party given for members of the immediate family and close friends. The party was given by their only child, Miss June Hines, who resides at home with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hines were married on June 23, 1940 in the Holy Cross Church, Pine Grove Avenue, this city. Mrs. Hines is the former Janet Marie Thompson of Delhi. Mr. Hines, a native of Kingston, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hines Sr., 93 Pine Grove Avenue, this city. Mr. Hines Jr. is president of Vanderlyn Battery Inc., 104 St. James Street, this city, and a member of Kiwanis.

ORDERING DINNER BEFOREHAND

Q: My husband and I would like to invite about 10 or 12 of our closest friends to dinner in a restaurant on our 15th wedding anniversary. I thought of going to the restaurant beforehand and ordering the dinner in advance to eliminate the confusion of everyone ordering separately. Will you please tell me if this will be proper, or should the guests be free to order whatever they wish?

A: It will be entirely proper to order the dinner in advance.

The Bride's Parents' Table

Q: Will you please tell me who, besides the bridegroom's parents, is asked to sit at the bride's parents' table?

A: Grandparents and especially close relatives and friends of the bride's parents or distinguished guests are seated at this table. The clergyman who performed the ceremony may, or may not, be included. If a high church dignitary has performed the ceremony, he is always seated at the bride's parents' table and is placed at the left of the hostess; his wife, if present, sits at the bride's father's left.

Ending an Evening of Bridge

Q: When invited to someone's house for an evening of bridge, may a guest suggest that they stop playing after several rubbers, or might this be considered rude to the hostess, and must the suggestion that they end the game come from her?

A: It is not rude for a guest to suggest a place to stop play. In fact, she may very well be doing a service by suggesting it as her hostess may be reluctant to say so herself for fear of seeming to tell the guests to go home.

The clothes of the bride's and groom's parents as well as those of the wedding guests are described in the Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Correct Clothes for a Wedding Reception." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Wesley Petty of Knoxville had a real sendoff when he was married.

"A bunch of my friends ripped the wires out, broke the radio antenna and poured some sort of paint on my car," he told police.

Kingstonian Elected To State VFW Office

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of New York and its Ladies' Auxiliary ended a state convention at Lake Placid on Saturday with a military parade at 2 p. m.

At the auxiliary election on Friday, Mrs. Sidney Lane of Kingston, who is Deputy Director of Civil Defense for Ulster County, was elected unanimously as Department Junior Vice President. Others elected were Mrs. Robert Murphy of Albany as Department President and Mrs. Richard Taylor of Binghamton as Department Senior Vice President. Installation of officers was held on Saturday morning.

Delegates were present from all sections of New York State as well as Kingston, New Paltz, and Saugerties. Past National President Lillian Campbell of Wisconsin was the National Representative.

During the Friday session Mrs. George Wood of Saugerties, who served as Page for Mrs. Lane, was presented with a pin denoting 45 years of continuous membership in the VFW Auxiliary. She moved to the Saugerties area some years ago from the Bronx and assisted in organizing both the Kingston and Saugerties auxiliaries.

Outdoor Art Exhibit

An outdoor art exhibit will be held at the Olive Free Library, Route 28-A, West Shokan, on July 10th and 11th from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. All paintings will be by Town of Olive residents.

A reception will be held on Saturday, July 10th, between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m., at which time the artists will be present. Tea and cookies will be served.

The paintings will be on display for one month during library hours after the exhibition.

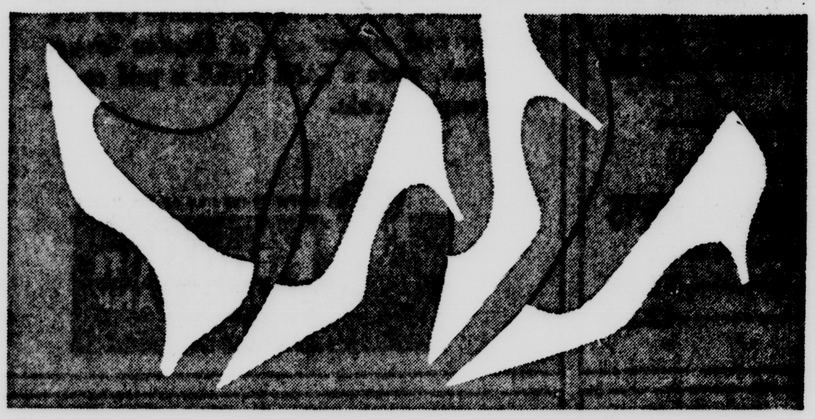

Books and baked goods will be on sale July 10th.

MISS JAMESTOWN

MISS KEN-TON

MISS LEWIS COUNTY

MISS LOCKPORT

MISS MANHATTAN

MISS MOUNT VERNON

MISS NEW ROCHELLE

MISS ONEONTA

Eight more beauties will compete for the title of Miss New York in the seventh annual pageant here on July 3-5 in the Kingston High School. They include the following:

MISS JAMESTOWN, Terry Ellen Emanuelson, 18-year-old daughter of Keith W. Emanuelson of Ashville, N. Y. Miss Emanuelson is sponsored by the Jamestown jaycees. She was graduated from Chautauqua Central High School in 1964 and plans to do a ballet number for the competition. Miss Emanuelson has studied classical ballet for six years. She lists her hobbies as reading, classical music, piano and organ and water skiing. If declared a scholarship winner, Miss Emanuelson will attend Boston Conservatory of Music and major in dance.

MISS KEN-TON, is 19-year-old Margaret Ann Lang of Tonawanda, N. Y. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lang and a student at Julliard School of Music. While she lists singing, swimming, classical music and bowling as her hobbies, Miss Lang hopes to become a professional dancer. She will do a modern dance with comedy media for the contest here. Miss Lang is sponsored by the Kenmore-Tonadanda JayCees.

MISS LEWIS COUNTY, Linda Gail Markham, is 18 years old and a sophomore at Cornell University. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claron E. Markman of Lowville, N. Y. Miss Markman would use a scholarship to continue her education at Cornell in Hotel Administration. She plans to be a hotel manager in public relations. The youthful beauty holds the title of "Lewis County Maple Queen."

MISS LOCKPORT is 19 year old Dorothy Jean Colbey, daughter of James N. Colbey of Lockport, N. Y. A student at the Toronto Conservatory of Music, Miss Colbey will play a medley of popular songs on the organ for the Pageant competition. She plans to be a music teacher. Her special training has included 12 years of piano, vocal lessons and organ. Miss Colbey is sponsored by the Lockport Jaycees.

MISS MANHATTAN, Florence Elizabeth Erickson, is the 21 year old daughter of William Erickson of Brooklyn. A high school teacher, she is a graduate of New York University School of Education. Since she was four and a half years old, Miss Erickson has studied all phases of dancing and plans to perform a modern jazz number. She holds four titles: Miss Free Enterprise, 1964; Miss Golf Fairways, 1964; 1964 Hot Rod Queen and Miss New York City Motor Inn of 1964. If judged a scholarship winner, Miss Erickson would attend a graduate school in education.

MISS MOUNT VERNON, Rita Regina Reynolds, hails from Mount Vernon, N. Y. and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds. She is a sophomore at Good Counsel and a 1964 graduate of Mount Vernon High School. Miss Reynolds was a finalist in the Journal American's "Miss Cover Girl" contest, and was voted most popular by her senior class. In high school she was voted basketball and football queen. Miss Reynolds has chosen a dramatic monologue for her talent portion of the competition. In her future she sees a journalistic or literary career. She is sponsored by the Mount Vernon Pageant Association.

MISS NEW ROCHELLE is 19 year old Yolanta Monica Stene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barski of New Rochelle, N. Y. A lyric soprano, Miss Stene will sing during the Pageant and if judged the winner, plans to use her scholarships for studies at Juilliard School of Music. Junior League Will Undertake Historic Preservation Project

Preliminary steps were taken Saturday by the Junior League of Kingston to initiate the survey phase of its Historic Preservation Project. Under the guidance of William H. van Benschoten, chairman of the Historic Building Committee of the Ulster County Planning Board, a panel of speakers including James Grote VanDerpool and Kenneth Hasbrouck conducted an orientation program providing League members with the historic and cultural insights needed to conduct the survey program. This program consists of canvassing and recording all residential and commercial buildings in the Ulster County area which have historic validity in terms of architecture and/or historic incident.

Mr. Hasbrouck, as associate historian of Ulster County, quoted the County Clerks records, the Freeman, the Senate House maps and the New Paltz library as excellent reference sources in locating many of these historic sites. At the same time, Mr. Hasbrouck cautioned his audience of the need to authenticate because of the abundance of local legend generally involved. This folklore itself should be recorded separately since it provides and invaluable cultural link to the historic records of the times.

Professor James Grote VanDerpool, as executive director of the Landmarks Preservation Commission of the City of New York, provided a knowledgeable and extensive briefing on Ulster County history and the architectural background needed for such a servey. Mr. VanDerpool cited Federal, Gothic, Italian villa, Hudson River villa and Greek revival as some of the types of architecture involved. He stressed, however, that landmarks are not based soley on architecture and that Ulster County is a very rich historic region. "It is one in which our ancestors standards were aesthetically very high and with care and restoration it could become a historical mecca for the future," he said.

BRITTS NAMES FIRST PLACE WINNER— A caricature of her father won first place for Amelia Narel in the recent Father's Day contest sponsored by Britts Department Store, Kingston Shopping Plaza. Miss Narel, who holds the winning drawing, is congratulated by Paul J. Sullivan, general manager of Britts. The 15-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aleksander Narel of Mosher Place, West Hurley, N. Y., enters her junior year at Onteora Central High School in September. She is a cartoonist for the school newspaper TOM TOM and contributed artwork for the 1965 Onteora Yearbook. Her father, who will be recipient of a man's dress suit as a result of the contest, is an engineer for the New York City Housing Authority. The first of an annual competition according to Mr. Sullivan, this year's contest drew more than 50 entries.

SENIORS GOLF COMMITTEE: Members of the executive committee of the Ulster County Seniors Golf Association meet at Deanie's to discuss plans for the 1965 tournament. From the left: Floyd W. Flint, vice president; Fabian L. Russell, director; Charles J. Tiano, treasurer; Ralph E. Gardner, secretary; and A. J. de Lisio, president. The committee set Sept. 12 as the date for the annual tourney at Woodstock. (Freeman photo by Wagenfohr)

Set Sept. 12 Date for Seniors

deLisio Again Named President

Ulster County Seniors Golf Association has re-elected Anthony J. deLisio of Woodstock president and set Sunday, Sept. 12 as the date for the 13th annual championship tournament at Woodstock Country Club.

Other officers named at the annual meeting held at Deanie's in Woodstock are: Floyd W. Flint, Twaalfskill, vice president; Ralph E. Gardner, Wiltwyck, secretary, and Charles J. Tiano, treasurer.

Directors retained are Harry Hohnhorst and Bruff Olin of Woodstock; Robert H. Daley, Wiltwyck, and Fabian L. Russell, Twaalfskill.

The tournament, open to all players 50 years and older, will again be contested in five age classes: Class A, 70 years and over; Class B, 65-69; Class C, 60-64; Class D, 55-59, and Class E, 50 to 54.

Players must have accredited club handicaps and must be bonafide Ulster County residents to participate in the 18-hole tournament.

Trophies will be awarded to low gross and low net in each class.

Travelling Trophies

Two travelling trophies also will be at stake. The Rifenbary Memorial Plaque is awarded to the low gross scorer of the entire tournament. The name of the Class A winner (recognized as the Ulster County Seniors champion) goes on the deLisio Memorial Plaque.

The Association will also present the annual Harold F. King Memorial Award to a senior golfer who has rendered distinguished service to golf over the years. The name of the winner is announced at the luncheon which follows the tournament.

Invitations will be mailed to all players who have participated in the tournament the past two years. Other eligible players may obtain entry blanks at the pro shops at Twaalfskill, Woodstock, Wiltwyck and Shawangunk in Ellenville.

Favorite Wins Big M Feature

Monticello — Adios Tilda, a classy two-year-old Adios Harry Filly, lived up to the 1-4 favorite's role the early crowd of 3901 made her in last night's feature fourth race at Monticello by winning in easy wire-to-wire fashion.

Driver, Pat Iovine, sent the youngster, owned by the Toro stable of Astoria, New York, to the front and was never headed in posting a 2:09.4 victory, her second straight at the Mighty M.

The only challenge in the race came heading toward the three-quarter pole when Yankee Shadow, reined by John Schmigel, Jr. made a brush, but Iovine pulled away Adios Tilda to a smart one and a half length victory.

Adios Tilda returned $2.80, 2.40 and 2.40 while Yankee Shadow's second place finish was worth $3.50 and 3.40 to backers. Butter Tape Scotch paid $6.50 for third.

Subway Grill Gets 10th Win

Bob (Nip) Lasher threw a three-hitter and Subway Grill breezed to its 10th straight win, 6-3, over Johnny's Shell Station last night in a City Softball League game.

The winners put the game away early with a five run surge in the second inning. Lasher was touched for a home run by slugging Ronnie Ferraro and for singles by Mike Amato and Joe Tremper but was in command all the way.

Ronnie Scheffel doubled twice for the winners. All but two of the Subway starters had at least one hit.

Former U. S. Open champion Julius Boros, one of golf's all time greats, has accepted an invitation to participate in the first 54-hole Concord Invitational tournament.

The new tournament will be played over the plush 7,205-yard golf course at the Hotel Concord.

Other new entries are three veterans of the professional circuit—Fred Hawkins, Billy Maxwell, Jim Feree. They join a previously announced group that include Mason Rudolph, Gardner Dickinson, George Knudson, Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriquez, Dick Mayer, Dave Marr, Bob Rosburg, Doug Ford, Jimmy Demaret, Jackie Burke, and the Herbert brothers, Jay and Lionel.

Early entrants among the amateurs include Dr. Paul Rousch Yonkers; John Evers, Albany; Chick Sales, Suffern; Berny Libby, Washington, D. C. and Dr. Allen Tanny, New York.

Gene Sarazen, the old pro, is expected to play on a part time basis, while the ailing Ken Venturi, the 1964 Open titleholder, also is expected to attend but will not play.

Although the maximum distance of the new course from the back of the tees is 7,672 yards the Concord management, in keeping with its pre-construction policy of having a course that can be made flexible, has lopped off more than 400 yards for the forthcoming tournament.

Gerry Hawkins, the leadoff batter, slammed a home run and Herzog Construction went on to trounce the Lions Club, 6-4, for their fifth win in six City Baseball League games, Tuesday night at the Dietz Stadium dust bowl.

Lonnie McAndrew and Paul Gardner combined for a 5-hitter, McAndrew yielding all the hits in six innings.

Gary Van Etten and Frank McGowan worked a 5-hitter for the Lions. McGowan, who gave up all six Herzog tallies, was the loser. McGowan and McAndrew fanned 11 each.

Take 3-0 Lead

Len Whitten's run scoring single sent Rich Lotze home and Herzog's to a 3-0 lead in the top of the third. Lions rallied with two runs in their half on an outfield error and Pete Watzka's single scoring Mike Derrenbacher.

Another outfield miscue, Lotze's single and a double by Paul Gruner sparked a three-run Herzog rally in the fifth. In the Lions half, Ed Argulewicz tripled Gary Johnson home and scored on a passed ball to make it 6-4. Both teames were scoreless in the last two innings.

Glasco Athletic Tossers Capture Sixth Straight

Bob (Mouse) Wolven and the Glasco Athletic Club are still undefeated in the Saugerties Softball League.

The A.C. rolled over Ted's Essos, 14-5, Tuesday for their sixth straight, while Wolven copped his fourth in a row. He pitched four innings, yielding three runs and four hits after Glesco staked him to a 6-0 lead. Bill Fiscaletti mopped up. Wolven also slugged a homer.

Ray Lasher led the 11-hit Glasco attack on Barney Hoyt with a double and two singles for a perfect day. Rich Marrelli stroked two singles and Ed Riozzi had a double for the winners.

John Cox's homer and a triple by Bob O'Connor were the big Esso blows.

Stengel Switches To The Jet Set

NEW YORK (AP) — "Well, I gotta see what some of the younger men can do," said Casey Stengel.

So the New York Mets' grizzled old manager announced a pitching change for today's game against Cincinnati: 25-year-old Tom Parsons instead of Frank Lary, who's 34.

Stengel made the switch shortly after Tuesday night's 8-6 loss to Milwaukee — a seventh straight setback for the dean of major league pitchers, 44-year-old Warren Spahn.

Little LEAGUERS

Giants Win, 7-2 In Hurley League

Mike Tyrell rapped four hits to pace the Giants to a 7-2 Hurley Little League win over the Tigers. Bruce Hurley was the winner on a four-hitter.

Tom Sullivan homered for the winners and Mike Kachura hit a double. All four hits by the Tigers were singles.

Jaycee Hawks Beat Jays, 8-1

Joel Helmrich fired a three-hitter and struck out 13 as the Hawks toppled the Jays, 8-1, in a Jaycee Little League game.

The winners opened with a four run surge in the first inning and were never headed. Steve Peruse clouted three singles in four attempts and Kevin McGowan was 2 for 2. Doug Clancy doubled for the Jays.

Line score:

NLL Pirates Win, 3-1, Over Braves

Bill Schoonmaker had a double and single and the Pirates beat the Braves, 3-1, in a National Little league game.

Winner Don Marallo allowed 10 hits but kept them well spaced. Steve Reddick had three straight safeties for the losers. Marallo and Kevin Godby each stroked two safeties.

Yankees Score Ulster Victory

Richard Hayner socked five straight hits and the Ulster Kiwanis Yankees topped Nytralite Tigers, 16-10, in a Town of Ulster Little league game.

The winners scored in every inning and capped it with a seven run surge in the second. An oddity is that only one extra base hit — a double by Don Closi was hit.

Ramsey Stops Lions Club, 15-5

Charles Ramsey, the first round champions, started the second round of the American Little league in the same fashion, whipping Lions Club, 15-5.

The winners scored four times in the first inning as Ed Koeppen doubled, Mike Jordan and Wayne Fatum stroked singles and Vin Hart slammed the first of his three doubles.

Given the early lead, Hart worked the entire game. He gave up two hits and fanned a dozen batters.

Pace Lefties

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Robert E. Morris, Tacoma, Wash., and Jack Butler, Atlanta, Ga., fashioned one-under-par 69s Tuesday to share the lead after the opening round of the 30th annual amateur championship of the National Association of Left-Handed Golfers.

Morris, a 46-year-old school teacher, played steady golf and got pair of birdies against one bogey. Butler sank three birdies to offset two bogeys.

Lema Top Name In Western Open

CHICAGO (AP) — Golf's big guns, U. S. Open champ Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Arnie Palmer — will be missing, but the $70,000 Western Open starting Thursday won't be exactly a poor man's outing.

Eight of the Professional Golf Association's top 15 official money winners, including reigning British Open champion Tony Lema, are included in a 135-pro field.

While Player, Nicklaus, Palmer and U. S. Open finalist Kel Nagle are making the British Open, July 7-9, their next endeavor, Lema again is giving the venerable Western Open a touch of his class.

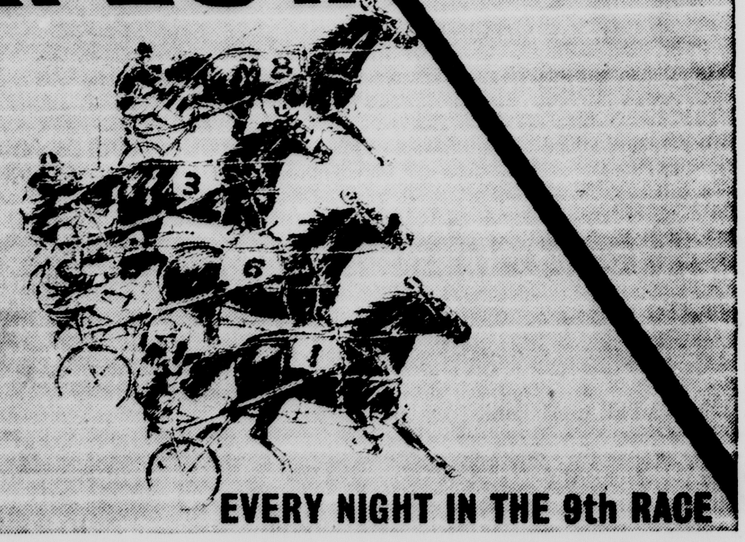

Last year, Lema also skipped early exploration of the British Open scene, playing the Western Open for a sixth place tie, then flying to St. Andrews to capture the British Open and captivate its galleries.

After Sunday's final Western Open round, Lema will fly to England and a quick preparation for his British Open title defense at Southport's Royal Birkdale course.

Last year's Western Open was won by Chi Chi Rodriguez with 268 — 16 under par. Lema scored 278, one stroke less than his winning 279 over historic St. Andrews for the British Open title a week later.

Wawarsing Sets Two Trapshoots

Wawarsing Sportsmen's Association has scheduled two trapshoots and a picnic for July. The first shoot will be held Saturday, July 3, from 4 p. m. to dusk.

During the weekend the open competition is expected to attract shooters from Ulster, Sullivan, Orange, Dutchess and Greene counties. Other entries are expected from the metropolitan area and northern New Jersey.

Another trapshoot is scheduled for July 10. Prizes for trapshoot winners will be frozen chickens and steaks.

The family supper has been scheduled for July 13 at 6:30 p. m. Entertainment and dancing follow in the clubhouse.

Information on the trapshoot may be obtained by calling Ernest Muller, Ellenville, chairman; and for the family supper by calling any member of the committee—John B. Gillette, Elsworth McDole and James Innes.

Mantilla On All-Star Squad; Yankees Fail to Land Berth

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Felix Mantilla, a New York Met reject, was named today on the 1965 American League All-Star team which for the first time in its 33-year history failed to list a single member of the New York Yankees.

Mantilla, the American League's runs-batted-in leader, beat out Bobby Richardson of the Yankees for the second base job on the opening line-up which will face the National League's best on July 13 at Minnesota. The veteran Boston Red Sox infielder, who also has played the outfield, is the league's fifth leading batter with .317.

Just One Repeater

Third baseman Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles was the only repeater from the 1964 opening line-up. Robinson was joined by four players who made the team for the first time. They included shortstop Dick McAuliffe and left fielder Willie Horton of the Detroit Tigers, center fielder Vic Davalillo of the Cleveland Indians, and Mantilla.

Other starters, chosen by a vote of 280 league players, coaches and managers, were catcher Earl Battey of Minnesota, first baseman Bill Skowron of the Chicago White Sox and right fielder Rocky Colavito of the Indians.

In all, the American League starting team, exclusive of the pitcher, comprised two players each from Cleveland and Detroit, and one apiece from Baltimore, Boston and Chicago, and Minnesota.

Shut out, besides the Yankees, were Washington, Los Angeles and Kansas City.

Commissioner Ford Frick, whose office conducted the balloting, said the National League starting line-up will be announced Sunday, July 4. The remainder of the squads, including the pitchers, will be announced later.

Will Name Pitchers

Al Lopez of the White Sox, who will manage the AL All-Stars, was expected to name eight pitchers. Gene Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies, will manage the National Leaguers. Each squad will carry 25 players.

The Yankees who, back in 1939 and 1940 had five starters in the opening line-up, managed to land two runner-up positions.

Catcher Elston Howard, sidelined for five weeks following an elbow operation, finished second to Battey. Richardson was runner up to Mantilla.

Other runners-up included Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew at first base, Zoilo Versalles at shortstop and Jimmie Hall in center; Cleveland's Max Alvis at third base; Boston's Carl Yastrzemski in left field and Detroit's Al Kaline in right field.

Last year's game was played at Shea Stadium in New York, where the National League won 7-4 to even the series at 17-all. One game ended in a tie.

The National League has won six of the last seven games.

Terry Gets 8th Win For Tribe

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

A year ago Ralph Terry was trying to break out of the New York Yankees bullpen and the Cleveland Indians were doing time in the second division.

Today Terry and the Indians are on the loose while the Yankees are where Cleveland was last June 30 — sixth place.

The torrid Indians took the American League lead for the first time Tuesday night by pounding Boston 8-5 as ex-Yankee Terry picked up his eighth victory of the season.

The tall-right-hander had won only two at this point last year and had lost his starting job. He was 2-6 with one complete game and a 6.95 earned run average.

"The Yankees tried to use me in relief," Terry said, "but I didn't go well and I think they gave up on me."

Terry, who had won a total of 40 games in the two previous seasons, wound up 7-11 for 1964 and was dealt to Cleveland last October.

Fourth Straight

He won four of his first five starts, then went a month without a victory before starting to roll again. Tuesday night's victory was his fourth straight. He has five complete games, two shutouts — including a 4-0 white-wash of the Yankees — and a 2.68 ERA.

The Indians' 16th victory in their last 18 games moved them one-half game ahead of second place Minnesota. The Twins edged Chicago 7-6 in an afternoon game, dropping the White Sox from a first-place tie into third position, one game out.

Washington, meanwhile, nipped the Yankees' five-game winning string with a 2-1 verdict over the defending AL champions, who fell 10 games off the pace and three under .500.

Baltimore topped Detroit 3-2 on Curt Blefary's two-run single in the eighth in the only other AL game scheduled.

Pinch Hitter Clicks

Minnesota pushed over the winning run in the last of the ninth on a double by pinch hitter Bernie Allen, a sacrifice bunt and Zoilo Versalles' scoring fly. Smokey Burgess' two-run pinch homer had tied the score in the top of the inning. Jimmie Hall and Harmon Killebrew each drove in two runs for the Twins.

Frank Howard broke up New York southpaw Al Downing's no-hit bid in the seventh with a towering homer and the Senators won it in the eighth on an error by Clete Boyer, a wild pickoff throw by Downing, Bob Chance's single and Ed Brinkman's sac fly. Bobby Richardson doubled in the eighth and scored New York's run on an error by Ken McMullen.

John Orsino's single, Brooks Robinson's double and Blefary's two-base shot enabled Baltimore to end a three-game skid and take fourth place, one game ahead of the Tigers. Rookie John Sullivan had put Detroit in front 2-1 in the fifth with a two-run homer.

Bills Trade Back For Jets' Liske

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) —Defensive back John Sklopan of the championship Buffalo Bills in the American Football League has been traded to the New York Jets for quarterback Pete Liske.

Liske, a 6-2, 195-pounder who played at Pennsylvania State University, was the Jets' third quarterback last year, and also played safety.

Sklopan came to the Bills in 1964 from the Denver Broncos, but saw limited action last year because of a broken right wrist. The 5-11, 190-pound back is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi.

Batavia Breaks Losing Streak

The win-hungry Batavia Pirates feasted on Geneva Tuesday night after living through a run famine that had lost them their last 15 games in the Class A New York & Pennsylvania Baseball League.

The visiting Pirates jumped on the Senators in the first inning with four runs and then banged away for another eight innings to roll up a 13-4 victory. Larry Killingsworth won his first start of the year.

Set 1st Twinbill Saturday at MR

MONTICELLO — The first double-header program of the season becomes a reality this Saturday at Monticello Raceway. A popular fixture at the Mighty M, the day-night cards feature 18 events and an exciting mule race, justly dubbed — The Hee-Haw Derby.

The Saturday spectacular is the first of four twin bills to be presented this year To get the July 4th weekend off to a sparkling start, racing secretary Ed Parker has divided his weekend program to provide fast class invitationals in both the afternoon and evening. The afternoon segment, which commences at 2:30 p. m., is headed by a 5,000 Invitational Trot. The evening card is topped by a $5,000 Invitational Pace.

The Hee-Haw Derby, presented at Monticello Raceway for the first time last season, is an attraction guaranteed to tickle the ribs. It is designed with one thought in mind—to make drivers out of the men who criticize and applaud in print, the gentlemen of the Fourth Estate.

The mules come to Monticello from Salem, Ohio and are a unique attraction to say the least. Owned by Jerry Lippiatt, the famous troupe has competed in many towns throughout the United States and Canada. They will amaze the patrons with their color, speed and excellent manners.

Six mules will head postward following the fourth race with six members of radio and press aboard. The Middletown Times Herald Record has an entry in scribes Ed Golemboski and John Szefc. They will be opposed by Ed Palladino of The Kingston Freeman, Bob Beckwith of WBAZ radio in Kingston, Lee Richards of The Port Jervis Union Gazette and Dick Raskin of WGNY in Newburgh.

Palladino is the only driver in the all-star field who has had the benefit of experience. He finished fourth in the six mule field last season.

Kiwanis, K of C Earn Babe Ruth League Wins

Kiwanis Club nipped K.P.A., and Knights of Columbus walloped Rotary Club, 9-3, in Kingston Babe Ruth League games last night.

Kiwanis scored its runs early and held off a belated rally by the losers. Monte Rios went the distance, giving up four hits. Tim Bowen lost it.

Gary Snyder of K.P.A. had a triple and Dan Sass and Ed Basch walloped doubles.

Jerry Corrado was the winner for the K of C. He aided his cause with a triple. Gary Schatzel, Vince Provenzano and Kevin Murphy hit doubles.

The winners had a pair of four run innings—the first and the sixth.

Tonight, in a doubleheader at Dietz Stadium, 35 Club meets the VFW at 6 and Vols oppose the Legion at 8 o'clock. Kiwanis and the Elks collide at 6 o'clock at the Athletic Field.

Koufax Hurls LA To 9-3 Win

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax finally has overtaken Sammy Ellis. He's also surpassed Sandy Koufax.

The Los Angeles Dodger ace recorded his 13th victory in the National League leaders' 9-3 triumph over San Francisco Tuesday.

Ellis, on the other hand, spent 14 innings trying for his 13th victory but couldn't get it. Instead Cincinnati wound up losing to Pittsburgh 2-1 in 16 innings. The Reds came back and won the nightcap 7-5.

In winning his seventh straight game, Koufax completed a masterful month of pitching. During June he won six times, one more than he ever has won before in one month.

Ahead of Best

The 13 triumphs also are the most the 29-year-old left-hander has had by the end of June. In 1963, Koufax won five games in June, giving him a 12-3 record en route to a 25-5 season.

But it took Koufax the entire month to edge by Ellis, who has blossomed into a sterling starter after spending last season in the bullpen.

The Reds' right-hander won his eighth game at the beginning of the month, five days before Koufax gained his eighth. Ellis proceeded to reach No. 9 six days before Koufax and No. 10 one day before.

Koufax then pulled even, each winning his 11th June 20 and his 12th last Friday. Each has lost three times.

In other National League games Philadelphia whipped St. Louis 7-1 and Milwaukee trimmed New York 8-6. Rain washed out Houston and Chicago.

Clemente Is Spoiler

Ellis gave up just four hits in 14 innings but wasn't around when Roberto Clemente singled home Bailey with the winning run in the 16th. Ellis scored the Reds' only run, racing across as Pete Rose singled in the 13th.

Rose batted in three runs in the nightcap, the first with a third-inning triple and two more with a single in a five-run fourth-inning outburst. Pitcher Joe Nuxhall also drove in two runs with a single in the inning.

Bo Belinsky stopped St. Louis on six hits, winning his third game against four defeats. Philadelphia supported him with a bases empty home run by Tony Gonzalez, a two-run homer by Johnny Callison and Dick Stuart's three-run blow.

The Braves outlasted the Mets with the help of two errors by Johnny Lewis and one by Chuck Hiller. Lewis' first miscue led to the run that broke a 4-4 tie in the sixth, Mathews scoring on Denis Menke's sacrifice fly. Warren Spahn suffered his 11th setback. He has won four times.

Napoleon Wins $14,267 Stakes

By The Associated Press

Colleen Napoleon clocked 2:02 4-5 to win the $14,267.50 Bennington Pace at Saratoga Raceway Tuesday night, highlighting New York State harness racing.

In the Grand Circuit's companion race, the $15,549.50 Chatham pace, Bonjour Hanover went the mile in 2:04 1-5 to return $3.50. Tarport Lib placed. Miss Butler showed.

Colleen Napoleon returned $6.80, defeating Mindy, second, and Woodlawn Drummond, third.

— Across the state, at Buffalo Raceway, Christie Gold won the $1,000 featured pace by a head over Adios Mike. Billy Hall showed. The winner, a 17-1 shot, paid $37.90 after winning in 2:07 1-5.

—At Roosevelt, Dixie Melody pulled ahead in the final strides to win the featured pace in 2:03 4-5. A nose back was Selka Diamond, who was three-quarters of a length in front of Laughing Girl. The winner paid $6.40.

— At Vernon Downs, Bric-A-Brac, in 8th place at the half, came on to win the featured $2,000 pace by three lengths. The winner clocked 2:03 and paid $4. Good Knight Lobell placed. Royal Gene Pick showed.

Zoning Board's Decision

Asks Halt of Truck Storing; Permits Servicing of Boats

Request for a zoning variance by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelsen of Ferry Street was denied on the petition to allow garaging of heavy equipment. However the other portion permitting storage and servicing of pleasure craft along the creek property was approved in a ruling announced late Tuesday.

The four-page ruling was signed by members of the Zoning Board of Appeals, including Robert Desmond, chairman; Richard Underhill and Robert Schnell.

Decision Precise

The decision was precise in defining heavy and light construction equipment and ruled out the two trucks now garaged at the Nelsen property and specifically prohibited storing either of these trucks on the property.

The ruling cited the character of the neighborhood along Esopus Creek with other property owners storing and servicing pleasure craft, and noted that unless the variance is granted, it would create an unnecessary hardship to the applicants.

The board's decision was the result of a public hearing held in Saugerties village clerk's office Friday night in connection with the application by Norman Nelsen and Marion R. Nelsen for a use variance on property owned by them and located on the north side of Ferry Street in that village.

The hearing was brought on in the nature of an appeal from an order dated May 28 by John W. Rivenberg, zoning enforcement officer which determined that the said property was classified U-1 residential.

Filed for Variance

Nelsen filed for a variance after Earle Hawk, a retired U. S. Navy admiral and resident of Ferry Street, in a letter to Mayor Cornelius Cox, noted that Nelsen was conducting his business on premises which are designated U-1.

Hawk said that Nelsen's commercial activities, which include construction of a large garage to house heavy construction equipment and installation of a marine gasoline station and service area are prohibited in the village zoning ordinance.

Hawk noted that a large truck, bulldozer and backhoe-front loader were stored in the garage and that a number of powerboats were stored on the Nelsen waterfront.

The penalties for non-compliance under the ordinance are $50 per day for each day of the violation.

Ask Permission

The appellants requested a variance in order to permit the storage of light construction equipment, the storage of pleasure boats, the sale of gasoline and other petroleum products to pleasure boats, light boat repairs and the sale of boating accessories.

At the public hearing, Rosenblum & Lamb, with John E. Egan of counsel, appeared as attorneys for the appellants and produced three witnesses: the appellant Norman Nelsen, Charles McNally and Richard Lezette. The only one speaking in opposition to the application for the variance was Hawk.

The board has carefully considered the said application, all the testimony introduced at the hearing, and all the exhibits in connection with the application and after due deliberation and after inspecting the property in question and the immediate area, find as follows:

1. That Norman Nelsen and Marion Nelsen acquired title to the premises, which are the subject of this application, by a deed from Charles McNally and Mary Alice McNally dated August 1, 1964, and thereafter recorded in the Ulster County County Clerk's Office.

Priced at $6,000

2. That the documentary stamps on the deed indicated a purchase price of $6,000 for the property.

3. That according to a survey introduced in evidence by the appellants and according to the description on the deed, the property consists of approximately 100 feet in width and 200 feet in depth.

4. That according to the exhibits and testimony introduced at the hearing, although the said property appears on the Village Zoning Map in a U-I residential district, the said property in fact has never been used for residential purposes.

5. That the village building inspector and zoning enforcement officer granted a building permit on or about the 8th day of September, 1964, for the purpose of a construction of a garage on said premises.

Near Boat Club

6. That immediately to the East of the property in question is property owned by the Saugerties Power Boat Association, which property consists of a clubhouse, boat dock, and space for boat storage. The said boat club has approximately 150 members and there are berthing accomodations for approximately 25 to 30 boats presently berthed on the boat club property.

7. That on the same side of the Esopus Creek and approximately 1,500 feet westerly from the premises in question there is an area also used for storing small boats and for selling gasoline and other petroleum products for pleasure boats.

8. That in the event the application for a variance is not granted, the appellants will suffer unnecessary hardship by virture of the fact that a building permit was properly issued and the appellants had reason to rely on the permit.

9. That the Board of Appeals has no jurisdiction over the use of the waters bounding the premises which are the subject of this application, on the North.

Grants Variance

In view of the above findings, it is the discision of this board that to grant the variance sought herein will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood, that it will serve the public conveniences and necessity and provide additional commercial facilities to serve the needs of the local people who own and operate pleasure boats, that a strict enforcement of the ordinance, unless this variance is granted, will create an unnecessary hardship to the applicants and it is the further opinion of this board that the land in question cannot yield a reasonable return if used only for the purpose allowed in that zone.

It is, therefore, the decision of the board that a variance is granted for the storage of pleasure boats, the sale of gasoline and other petroleum products to pleasure boats, and for the purpose of light boat repairs and the sale of boating accessories. It is the further decision of this board that a variance is granted to permit the storage of light construction equipment owned by the appellant. In this respect, neither of the two trucks presently owned by the appellant fall within the category of light construction equipment and he is thereby prohibited from storing either of these trucks on the property in question. In order to further define what constitutes light construction equipment, it is the decision of this board that any construction equipment weighing 18,000 pounds or more or any trucks with a registered laden weight of 18,000 pounds or more constitute heavy equipment.

Jack Mara Dies; Of Giant Empire

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Mara's death from cancer Tuesday left the New York Giants of the National Football League without a leader. It broke up a brother combination that had developed the club into a multi-million dollar enterprise in the years since their father, Tim, an NFL pioneer, had turned operation over to his sons.

Jack, 57, was the administrator, the man who negotiated with the radio and television people, the man directly concerned with matters effecting the club and the league. Wellington, eight years younger, has been more concerned with player, coaching and scouting affairs.

Poughkeepsie Has Wrestling Show

Summer weather is no deterent to the big names on the professional wrestling circuit, so Poughkeepsie area mat fans will be pleased to learn that an All-Star show is on tap for Friday, July 9 — at Riverview Field. The action is slated to get underway at 8:30 p. m. and will be a benefit show for the Exchange Club's Youth Fund.

Taking the spotlight in the big show will be the ever-popular Italian strongman, Bruno Sammartino. The amiable Sammartino will face a rough customer in Gorilla Monsoon in the to-a-finish main event.

Also on tap is a tag-team thriller in which the Indians get another chance for some revenge on the palefaces. Teaming up for this one will be New York Jets' linebacker Chief Wahoo McDaniel and Chief Big Heart to take on the team of Smasher Sloan and Magnificent Maurice in a best-of-three falls spectacular.

Dr. Jerry Graham also returns for the rumpus, and he'll go in against Sailor Art Thomas in what promises to be action from start to finish.

Promoter Ed Ceccolini has two other singletons lined up for the show, with Irish Don McClarity taking on Frank Martinez and Miguel Perez bouncing in to take on the veteran Golden Boy, Arnold Skaaland, both in 30-minute bouts.

Present Winning Essays on Flag In DAR Contest

One of the many projects sponsored by Saugerties Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution is its Flag of the United States of America, and What It Means to Me, essay contest.

The flag essay contest is another project of the DAR in its aim of increasing the importance of being an American and also to emphasize the need for a growing interest and pride in its heritage.

The contest was open to all Seventh and Eighth Grade students in the Saugerties Central School system. The first place winners were presented with plaques. They are Brenda Pavlinik of the Eighth Grade and Naomi L. Velasco of the Seventh Grade, and a special award to David Goble of the Eighth Grade.

The two winning essays follow:

By BRENDA PAVLINIK

The most universally recognized flag in the world today is probably our own American flag. To many people in the world it symbolizes more than just another country — it means a land of opportunities and most of all freedom. A place where they all would love to live. Yet what does this flag mean to Americans?

In our school, you will find the American Flag in every room. It hangs from the wall and every morning we pledge our devoted loyalty and undying service to the country it stands for. This simple little pledge we recite so mechanically every day stands for something we aren't completely aware of. We are promising something that we are not living up to.

This great country of ours provides us with home, work, enjoyment, freedom of speech, freedom of press and freedom of religion. Everything is at our fingertips and all we have to do is take and mold it into our lives. But we have to do it—there isn't anyone to do it for us. Think of it, it is all for us, all for the asking or rather the saying of a few little sentences—The Pledge of Allegiance.

We must declare our loyalty to our country. Have you ever stopped to think of what "Pledge of Allegiance" means? It means undivided loyalty and lasting service. Do you think that most Americans are giving their country lasting service? Can we ever pay back our country for all that it has given us? For the liberty and justice for all? I think we can.

If we can say that Pledge of Allegience with a feeling for the extent and depth of the words and understand the meaning of those words, if we can look at that Star-Spangled Banner of ours with pride and respect and be able to say, that Flag stands for my freedom, for my liberty and most of all for my country, then I think we can all enjoy a little better our benefits that our star-spangled banner promises us.

By NAOMI L. VELASCO

I have lived here in the United States for four years now and I find it very different here compared to the Philippines. By now I have developed my own meaning to their flag. Like developing my own meaning to our flag, it was hard. But now I have completed my thoughts and I wish to write them to you.

First of all the flag means to me, Freedom. Freedom to its citizens and promising freedom to its future citizens. She has proven that the stars and stripes flowing proudly under that blue sky cannot be taken down and let another go up in its place. She has proven this during the past two centuries. During the American Revolutionary War she proved that Britain could not take her glory down. She fought hard and at the end she flew with pride on top of that flagpole. She has flown so until now and she will forever.

Besides Freedom the flag also means World Friendship among the other countries. She is often found drawn or printed on CARE packages which contain aid to the uncivilized peoples in India or Africa. Or maybe aid to those made homeless because of some tragic war. She means to be honored by other countries as well as her own.

I have also discovered that as a flag, with stars and stripes, she also has her own meaning and a little history. And I found this most interesting. Its red is the red life blood of brave men and women who stand ready to die or live worthily for their country. Its white is for purity of word and deed. And its blue for justice. Its fifty stars stand for all the fifty states. It was first made by Betsy Ross after General Washington designed it in Philadelphia in June 1776. And it was first flown over Fort Stanwix in 1777. And Francis Scott Key, prisoner on an English man-of-war during the attack on Fort McHenry in 1814, watched the flag during the night and wrote "The Star-spangled Banner" on the back of a letter.

So when I say the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, I remember my meaning and recite it with pride. And as representing the Philippines here, I show them that we all, as a country, respect your flag too.

W. Saugerties Club Asks Curb On Area Littering

An appeal to the public to halt the littering of the highways and country scenery was issued today in a statement by West Saugerties Community Club Inc.

The letter signed by May Schaller, secretary follows:

"Now that school is out and vacation starts, the West Saugerties Community Club Inc., again wishes to call attention to our citizens that are enjoying our wonderful country scenery in their travels, please don't litter our country roads and highways with all kinds of garbage. Take along a trash bag and dispose of it at home the proper way.

"Won't you please help?"

Anderson Jinx Ends at Nine

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

All bad things must come to an end and Buffalo pitcher Craig Anderson should be one of the first to testify to the truth of that saying.

The former major leaguer collected his first victory of the International League season Tuesday night as the Buffalo Bisons defeated Toronto 8-4. Anderson had lost nine consecutive games.

Anderson drove in three runs and scored another to account for half the Bisons' runs. Gordie Richardson helped out by holding the Maple Leafs scoreless over the final two innings.

Elsewhere, Jacksonville nipped first place Atlanta 3-2, Columbus shut out Toledo 3-0 in a rain-shortened game, and Rochester walloped Syracuse 12-4.

Congo Marks 5th Year as Independent

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Congo celebrated its fifth birthday today with politicians crowing and the military marching. But the country's economy still is sickly.

Potentially it is one of Africa's richest countries, rich in industrial diamonds, copper, cobalt, uranium and other minerals. It has one of the world's great potentials for hydroelectric power, lush land and plentiful manpower.

But its economy is stagnant. One reason is the lack of security. Rebellion has racked the vast central African territory since its first week of freedom in 1960.

These rebellions helped create the Congo's second great economic problem—overspending.

Boy, 4, Missing From Schooner, Sandal Is Found

NEW YORK (AP)—A 4-year-old boy disappeared Tuesday from his parents' rented schooner moored in the Hudson River.

A small sandal floating nearby was the only trace of Joseph Anderson found in a wide search by police and the Coast Guard who used boats, a helicopter and grappling irons.

The parents, Christopher, 27, a free lance photographer, and Lyda, 24, were below deck on the 43-foot schooner moored in the 79th Street yacht basin when the boy ran from the galley to the deck. The parents noticed Joseph's disappearance moments later and spread an alarm.

The Andersons, who had been living aboard the schooner since they rented it in April, live at Tenafly, N.J.

Holmes, Barbara Shows Top Field As Emmy Choices

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — "The Magnificent Yankee," based on the life of Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr., has the most Emmy nominations — nine — from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

"My Name Is Barbra," Barbra Streisand's debut as star of a special, was proposed for six awards as the academy announced its nominations Tuesday.

The 1964-65 Emmies will be presented Sept. 12.

Watertown Man Is Killed in Crash

HENDERSON, N.Y. (AP)—Clyde H. Jackson, 54, of Watertown, was killed and a solider was injured seriously last night when their automobile crashed into a tree.

William C. Starcher, 24, of San Antonio, Tex., who was assigned to the headquarters company of the 1209th Engineers at nearby Camp Drum, was taken to Mercy Hospital in Watertown.

The accident occurred on Route 3, near this community southeast of Watertown.

Jackson recently was discharged from the Army.

Women Broader

WASHINGTON (AP) — What you may have suspected has now been proven — women are broader across the seat than men.

Not much broader — 14.4 inches on the average to the men's 14 inches.

This is one of the findings of a survey of almost 7,000 adults from 18 to 79 years released by the Public Health Service Tuesday.

They made the survey to aid in the design of commercial, industrial, military or medical equipment "to insure its safe, efficient and comfortable use."

Report Missing Rosendale Girl Returns to Home

A 10-year-old Rosendale girl reported missing from her home since 11 p. m. Tuesday returned to her home shortly before Freeman press time, Kingston State Police reported.

State Police were notified last night by Mrs. Iona Swierl of Rosendale that her 10-year old daughter, Theresa Swierl was missing from home. She was last seen on the porch of the home in Rosendale. Troopers F. C. Cooper and J. H. Pchtel of the Lake Katrine station investigated. All law enforcement agencies had been alerted.

No further information was available at press time.

Contestants . . .

Cynthia Jean Pannucci, Miss Seneca Falls; Janet Mary Aspinwall, Miss Syracuse; Dianne M. Connelly, Miss Thousand Islands and Gail Louise Yeaple, Miss Tri-County.

Photos of all the contestants, the panel of judges, the complete program and the names of committees may be found in the souvenir program book now on sale at the office of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, headquarters of the State Pageant and at the news stand in the lobby of the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The Yellow Rose Group will compete in the three phases of the competition as follows: evening gown, Friday night, talent, Thursday; and Swim Suit on Friday. The Red Rose group; evening gown competition Thursday night, talent on Friday and swim suit Thursday.

From the 26 contestants the 10 finalists will be selected and announced early Saturday evening. All contestants participate on Saturday night, but the 10 finalists will again compete and be judged in all three phases of the competition. The next step is to select five finalists who will be asked to answer some specific questions in the final or personality and intellect portion of the competition. The culmination of the three days of unusual entertainment will be the crowning of Miss New York, 1966. The winner will represent the Empire State in Atlantic City early in September and vie for the title of Miss America with 49 other state representatives.

The panel of judges this year consists of Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold of Saugerties; Miss Marie McCormack, New York; Leonard Probst, Brooklyn; A. Burt Champion, Westport, Conn., and William C. Baldwin of West Chester, Pa.

The Thursday and Friday night performances start 8:30 in the Kingston High School Auditorium and 3 o'clock Saturday night. Many tickets are still available for Thursday and Friday night, but it would be advisable to get tickets in advance for Saturday night. As all seats are reserved the seating charts, for the selection of seats and the tickets are being handled exclusively at the office of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

In addition to the appearances of all the contestants, two previous title winners, Paula Roberta Heins, Miss New York 1963 will sing Saturday night and Barbara Ann Gloede, Miss New York 1964 will perform Friday night. Julie Just the current Miss New York will appear and sing all three nights. Donald Mac Isaac will be the master of ceremonies and Jack Burton the producer-director. Earl M. Proper is the Miss New York Chorus director and the Peter Ferraro orchestra will play for all three performances.

The Miss New York Officials expressed the opinion today that the 1965 State Pageant this year will be the biggest and best of all previous Pageants during the past six years.

Dorion criticized Favreau for deciding on his own to stop an investigation into an allegation by Montreal lawyer Pierre Lamontagne that a high government official offered him the bribe to drop his opposition to bail for Rivard. Dorion said Favreau should have instructed his legal advisers to make a full study of the case.

Rivard, 49, is wanted in Texas as the alleged kingpin of a multi - million - dollar heroin smuggling operation. He escaped from a Montreal jail March 2 and is still at large.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) The stock market rang up a massive gain in heavy trading today.

It held the momentum of the huge runup late Tuesday in a wild roller-coaster session.

The New York Stock Exchange's volume in the first hour totaled 2.48 million shares against 2.63 million in the like period Tuesday, when total volume exceeded 10 million shares.

A broker said the rise has seen an increase in buying by institutions, who deal in big blocks, This is the last day of the 1965 first half and it was their last day to bolster their portfolios.

He said some of the small investors "were still scared and selling" but that there was some bargain-hunting in their ranks.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 11.08 to 862.48. It had been ahead 14.43 at 10:30 a.m.

June of that year. Last year he was given first grade status.

In his letter of resignation, Stingel mentioned that his salary as a fireman "was not enough for me to risk my life." He also stated that his work did not leave him enough time to spend with his family.

John Hammersly, 73 West Pierpont Street was appointed on an emergency basis to fill the vacancy left by Stingel. To date, Longendyke and Hammersly alone have been named to fill the five vacancies.

Dwyer was appointed fireman third grade Aug. 20, 1964 after entering the department earlier that year.

Permanent vacancies still to be filled are those made by the resignations of Woods and the Diers brothers. Fire Chief James M. Brett told The Freeman that he "anticipates that these vacancies will be filled in a short time."

Formally Charge Migrant in Death

Albert Grace, 35, of Albany, Ga., was taken before Justice of the Peace Linn Baker of the Town of Lloyd Tuesday and formally charged with first degree murder for the fatal stabbing of Elizabeth Brown, 45, Lake Wales, Fla., at the William Lyons farm, Marlboro, early Tuesday morning.

Grace demanded a hearing and was remanded to jail for a hearing on July 13 at 2 p. m.

It is alleged that Grace stabbed Elizabeth Brown, also known as Virginia Brown, numerous times in the chest with a kitchen knife. The stabbing is reported to have come after a lengthy argument between the two at a tenant house on the Lyons premises.

After the stabbing Grace went to a neighbors and reported the stabbing and requested police be notified. Grace was arrested and charged with first degree murder. The stabbing apparently took place about 7 a.m. Tuesday.

Marie Asking More

SAN FERNANDO, Calif. (AP) —Marie (The Body) McDonald said Tuesday her former husband, Harry Karl, is $13,000 behind in support payments for their three children.

In Superior Court, she asked a raise from $250 a month to $750 for each child, contending teen-agers cost more.

Karl is married to Debbie Reynolds.

Kolts Heads . . .

with and two children at Elmendorf Heights. He is treasurer and executive committee member of Ulster County Red Cross; director of the Industrial Development Corporation; member and past director of Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce; past comamnder of Joyce-Schirick Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and a member of the Kiwanis Club of Kingston.

In his talk, Rigby called Uptown Kingston the "oldest commercial district" between New York and Albany, it having been established in 1658.

"In all its 300 years, Wall Street has been and remains a proud, distinguished street," he said. "It's a street of plus service, with big stocks of quality merchandise."

Out-going President Kaplan thanked the officers, directors and committee members for their support to the Association during the year, and extended a special expression of thanks to Gordon Dew, who on short notice took over the chairmanship of the important Promotion Commitee after its former chairman, William Rotunda, was transferred.

George Svirsky, a past-president of the Association, urged all members to attend the public hearing on Urban Renewal Thursday, 7:30 p.m., at the Common Council Chambers in the City Hall.

John Warren, executive secretary, reviewed the past year's activities, including the Hallowe'en Window Painting Contest, Santa Claus House, the Spring Shower of Prizes, and the visit of the Easter Bunnies.

Savings Shift Can Yield Income Gain

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I lost my wife just after we planned to retire. I am in poor health and my only income is Social Security. I have $15,000 in the bank and would like to know how to invest it safely for additional income."—J. K.

A) Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of your wife and on your own poor health. I do not believe that you can substantially increase your income by buying stocks even after the recent moderate decline. You should certainly retain at least $5,000 in savings to protect you against any contingency.

If your present savings are drawing four per cent, you could add $100 annually to your income by investing $10,000 in equal dollar amounts of Puerto Rican Cement; Norfolk & Western Rwy., and Santa Fe Rwy., each of which yields a well- protected five per cent. To try to exceed this rate brings in elements of risk which, in my opinion, you can ill afford.

Q) "I have substantial stock holdings and a good tax-loss carry forward. I could take some profits and switch into municipals, of which I own none. Do you advise this? My bracket is around 50 per cent."—A. M.

A) The recent decline in the market pointed out its vulnerability after a long, almost uninterrupted rise. There are as yet no signs of a bear market, but if you can offset capital gains with previously established losses I believe it would be prudent to do so.

I also believe that a man in your bracket, whose taxable equivalent yield would be double the actual return, should hold a reasonable backlog of municipals for income and stability. I suggest New York State Thruway Gtd. 2.70s of 1978 to yield 3.10; Stamford, Conn., 3.10s of 1988 on a 3.15 basis (when issued); and Florida State Board of Education 3.30s of 1994 to yield 3.30 per cent. These bonds are all rated AA.

Warming Trend Is Due by Saturday

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau's extended forecast for Upstate New York for Thursday through Monday:

Mainly dry weather and moderate temperatures. Cool the next day or two, when daytime highs will range in the 70s and low 80s. Night-time lows in the 50s likely most of the period. A warming trend by Saturday and through Sunday, with highs mainly in the 80s to near 90. Cooler weather may develop early next week. Most likely shower period Saturday and Sunday, but probability rather low.

Pilot House Is Sheared Off Tug

HERKIMER, N.Y. (AP)—The pilot house of a tugboat was sheared off early today when the boat attempted to pass under the Washington Street bridge on the Barge Canal. Two crewmen suffered minor injuries.

The bridge's steel-grit road surface was buckled by the impact and the bridge was closed to traffic, near this Mohawk village.

State Police said the tugboat, owned by the Anne Moran Corp., was enroute from New York Harbor to Greenbay, Wis., with a load of machinery.

Clem Gillikin, 62, of Beaufort, N.C., was at the helm, State Police said. He told them he was proceeding slowly and thought the boat would clear the bridge.

The pilot house was demolished. Gillikin and Lee E. Yesurlid, 39, of Brooklyn, were treated at a nearby hospital.

Condition Still Serious

Catherine Veytia, 35, of 66 Hurley Avenue, was reported still in serious condition today at Kingston Hospital. She was injured in a fall Saturday night at Dietz Memorial Stadium.

PROJECT HEAD START—Kingston School District joins with the White House and 2,300 other communities throughout the nation in marking the launching of Project Head Start today. Dr. W. Wendell Hoover, right, superintendent of schools, accepts the official flag from Bernhardt S. Kramer, regional representative of the Office of Economic Opportunity. Project Head Start, administered by the federal agency OEO, is designed to provide more than a half million children with an eight-week pre-school training to prepare them for school in the fall. The children will be enrolled in more than 13,500 child development centers across the country using the services of nearly 40,000 professionals. More than 42,000 neighborhood residents will assist the professional staff in paid capacities.

New Leaders Are Named Monday at Onteora School

EDWARD WITKO

CARL BROWN

Edward Witko, vice principal at the Onteora High School, was named principal of the high school at a special meeting of the board of education on Monday, June 28. He replaces Paul Runge who has resigned to become high school principal in Hartsdale, N. Y.

Mr. Witko was appointed vice principal at the high school three years ago after having served as a teacher in the district since 1952.

He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Springfield College, a Master of Arts Degree from Columbia University, and has completed additional graduate. study at SUNY Albany. During the summer of 1963, he was a recipient of a coveted John Hay Fellowship in the humanities, studying at Beenington College in Vermont.

Carl Brown, chemistry teacher, was named vice principal of the high school at the same meeting, replacing Witko. Mr. Brown holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the Teachers College at East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, a Master of Science Degree from Syracuse University and has completed additional graduate study at Central State College at Wilberforce, Ohio and SUNY Albany.

Brown has been a chemistry teacher at Onteora since 1952 and taught biology, chemistry, and phyisics at Middleburgh, New York from 1956-62.

Start Recreation Program Today In Town of Ulster

The recreation program for the Town of Ulster starts today and will continue through Monday, Aug. 30.

There is swiming on Monday and Wednesday of each week, with Friday as an alternate date, should it rain on the preceeding Monday or Wednesday. The Town will offer bus service to and from DeWitt Lake, and each bus will be supervised by a counselor. Pick-up will begin at 12:35 and return at approximately 4 p m. The route is as follows:

Lipton Bee Line will pick up children at the following stops: Boice's Lane and Morton Boulevard, Sunset Park; Van Keuren Highway and Morton Boulevard; Lawrenceville Street, Esopus Avenue and Nicholas Street; Ted's Market, Vincent Street; Groff Street and Lincoln Park Place; Plainfield and Harwick Streets; Hillside Avenue and Miller's Lane at 12:55 and Golf Terrace and Lucas Avenue.

Acker Bus Lines will pick up children at their terminal in East Kingston; Country Club Estates in Flatbush; Tuytenbridge Road area; Neighborhood Road (Lake Katrine); Lake Katrine School; Neighborhood Road and Leggs Mill Road; Ruby Firehouse, and junction of Sawkill Road and Brabrandt Road.

The town has appointed Robert Bondar director of the recreation program and he will be assisted by three counselors.

Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1 to 5 p. m. organized play activities will be held at Chambers School grounds.

Boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 15 are eligible to participate in the program. Signed permission slips stating child's name, address and age are required.

Resnick Lauds Groups Helping Head Start Plan

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick of Ellenville (D-28th District) today congratulated all organizations in the 28th District who are taking part in Operation Head Start.

President Johnson has declared today as Head Start Day to promote a new federal program aimed at giving children of low-income families preschool training before they start classes in the fall.

On June 19 Governor Rockefeller approved the awarding of Project Head Start grants to Kingston Schools Consolidated, Webatuck Central School, Amenia and South Kortright Central School in Delaware County.

The federal grants under the Economic Opportunity Act are part of the War on Poverty.

The Kingston grant of $12,777 will finance a program to give disadvantaged children of the district pre-school training before they enter school next fall.

It was noted that between 60 to 75 children in the district will be trained to prepare them for entering kindergarten.

Fifty-two of the 82 mountain peaks over 14,000 feet elevation in the United States are located in Colorado.

NAACP Discloses State Cities for School Drives

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Demonstrations protesting de facto racial segregation will mark the opening of public schools next September in 24 Northern and Western states, the director for educaion of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said today.

The director, June Shagaloff, discussing target areas at the 56th annual NAACP convention, said:

"Boston school officials have refused to act; Bridgeport, Conn., will certainly be considered among Northern systems where meaningful corrective action has not been taken."

In New York State, Roosevelt, Mount Vernon, and Buffalo were listed as possible sites for school demonstrations. Chicago and Portland, Ore., are other localities "to mention only a few," Miss Shagaloff said.

Dr. Buell Gallagher, president of the City College of New York, told the convention Tuesday night the civil rights drive could leave behind "deep and angry scars" or "unity and serenity."

"This is the choice to be made," the white educator said. "It is ours to make, in this generation."

Gallagher said goals of the drive were "liberty, fraternity, and equality," and none of the three could stand successfully alone.

Musicians to Meet On Monday, July 12

The next regular quarterly meeting of Local 215, American Federation of Musicians will be held Monday, July 12 at 7:30 p. m.

This was announced today by the secretary, Michael J. Marchuk, who said the date was changed because of the July 4 holiday. Sessions are held at the Union Hall, Albany Avenue Extension.
